The Theosophical Path Katherine Augusta Westcott Tingley,1920 The Dialectic of God: the Theosophical Views of Tagore and Gandhi Satya Sinha,2015-05-05 This is the first book which compares the philosophical views of Tagore and Gandhi who were the most important thinkers of Modern India They have not conceived God in traditional way but rather in humanistic way which relates to present day thinking mind Neither have left any systematic presentation of their ideas about God It has been deciphered from their poetry writings speeches discourses and letters Present day concept of God has evolved from rudimentary ideas of God Even in the present scientific age we come across different ideas about God in different men The layman the man on the street with little or no education has an idea of God much different from the idea of God which a cultured and educated holds Almost all the Indian contemporary thinkers have been influenced by the basic scriptures of the Hindus Tagore and Gandhi have also been influenced by them Tagore and Gandhi both had contacts with the Muslims and the Christian missionaries who had come to India Of these the Christian missionaries made scathing attacks on the Hindu religion and practices Both Tagore and Gandhi visited Europe and came into contact with the Unitarian Christianity It is possible that their thinking about God might have been influenced by such contacts The Theosophical Quarterly ,1912 The Kingdoms of Life from a Theosophical Viewpoint C.
