Antonsen, 2011-04-20 The older runic inscriptions ca AD 150 450 represent the earliest attestation of any Germanic language The close relationship of these inscriptions to the archaic Mediterranean writing traditions is demonstrated through the linguistic and orthographic analysis presented here The extraordinary importance of these inscriptions for a proper understanding of the prehistory and early history of the present day Germanic languages including English becomes abundantly clear once the accumulation of unfounded claims of older mythological and cultic studies is cleared away The Determination of Stages in the
