The Language Of Forms Lectures On Insular Manuscript Art:

The Language of Forms Meyer Schapiro, 2005 This book provides an invaluable historical document as well as the opportunity to listen once again to his incomparable revelatory analyses of images through which he taught his students to see Others can now follow the spellbinding lecturer as he works his way through an image making us see what we had not inferring Early Medieval Text and Image Volume 1 Jennifer O'Reilly, 2019-06-17 When she died in 2016 Dr Jennifer O'Reilly left behind a body of published and unpublished work in three areas of medieval studies the iconography of the Gospel Books produced in early medieval Ireland and Anglo Saxon England the writings of Bede and his older Irish contemporary Adomnán of Iona and the early lives of Thomas Becket In these three areas she explored the connections between historical texts artistic images and biblical exegesis This volume brings together nine studies of the Insular Gospel Books One of them on the iconography of the St Gall Gospels Essay 9 was left completed but unpublished on the author's death It appears here for the first time The remaining studies published between 1987 and 2013 examine certain themes and motifs that inform the Gospel Books their implicit Christology their harmonisation of the four Gospel accounts the depiction of Christ crucified and the portrayal of St John the Evangelist Two of the Books the Durham Gospels and the Gospels of Mael Brigte receive particular attention CS1079 Paradigms and Methods in Early Medieval Studies C. Chazelle, F. Lifshitz, 2016-04-30 The articles in this volume by scholars all pursuing careers in the United States concern the theoretical approaches and methods of early medieval studies Most of the issues examined span the period from roughly 400 to 1000 CE and regions stretching from westernmost Eurasia to the Black Sea and the Baltic This is the first volume of essays explicitly to reassess the heuristic structures and methodologies of research on early medieval Europe Because of its geographic chronological thematic and methodological diversity and scope the collection also showcases the breadth of early medieval studies currently practiced in the United States The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane, 2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture Meggs' History of Graphic Design Philip B. Moses the Egyptian in the Illustrated Old English Hexateuch (London, British Library Cotton MS Claudius B.iv) Herbert R. Broderick, 2017-11-15 In Moses the Egyptian Herbert Broderick analyzes the iconography of Moses in the famous illuminated eleventh century manuscript known as the Illustrated Old English Hexateuch A translation into Old English of the first six books of the Bible the manuscript contains over 390 images of which 127 depict Moses with a variety of distinctive visual attributes Broderick presents a compelling thesis that these motifs in particular the image of the horned Moses have a Hellenistic Egyptian origin He argues that the visual construct of Moses in the Old English Hexateuch may have been based on a Late Antique no longer extant prototype influenced by works of Hellenistic Egyptian Jewish exegetes who ascribed to Moses the characteristics of an Egyptian Hellenistic king military commander priest prophet and scribe These Jewish writings were utilized in turn by early Christian apologists such as Clement of Alexandria and Eusebius of Caesarea Broderick s analysis of this Moses imagery ranges widely across religious divides art historical religious themes and classical and early Jewish and Christian sources Herbert Broderick is one of the foremost historians in the field of Anglo Saxon art with a primary focus on Old Testament iconography Readers with interests in the history of medieval manuscript illustration art history and early Jewish and Christian apologetics will find much of interest in this profusely illustrated study

Astray Eluned Summers-Bremner, 2023-06-07 A meandering celebration of the indirect and unforeseen path revealing that to err is not just human it is everything This book explores how far from being an act limited to deviation from known pathways or desirable plans of action wandering is an abundant source of meaning a force as intimately involved in the history of our universe as it will be in the future of our planet In ancient Australian Aboriginal cosmology in works about the origins of democracy and surviving disasters in ancient Greece in Eurasian steppe nomadic culture in the lifeways of the Roma in the movements of today s refugees and in our attempts to preserve spaces of untracked online freedom wandering is how creativity and skills of adaptation are preserved in the interests of ongoing life Astray is an enthralling look at belonging and at notions of alienation and hope

Abstraction in Medieval Art Elina Gertsman, 2025-10-01 Abstraction haunts medieval art both withdrawing figuration and suggesting elusive presence How does it make or destroy meaning in the process Does it suggest the failure of figuration the faltering of iconography Does medieval abstraction function because it is imperfect incomplete and uncorrected and therefore cognitively visually demanding Is it conversely precisely about perfection To what extent is the abstract predicated on theorization of the unrepresentable and imperceptible Does medieval abstraction pit aesthetics against metaphysics or does it enrich it or frame it or both Essays in this collection explore these and other questions that coalesce around three broad themes medieval abstraction as the untethering of the image from what it purports to represent abstraction as a vehicle for signification and abstraction as a form of figuration Contributors approach the concept of medieval abstraction from a multitude of perspectives formal semiotic iconographic material phenomenological epistemological
