The Language of Love, 1991 The Language of the Heart Edd George Ergo Espinosa, 2009-04 THE LANGUAGE OF THE HEART Love Poems and Passions. The feeling of love respects no boundary of expression in a heart-to-heart intimacy between two souls. Love is love, no matter how long or short its sojourn in the life of a person, no matter how deep or shallow its degree, or no matter how wide or narrow the space it occupies in one's heart. Truly, love is love, no matter how it is expressed in different passions: sharing, caring, giving, receiving, laughing, hurting, leaving, pleading, crying, forgiving, or even losing and getting it back again and again. Love never changes its effects and color the happiness and contentment in the heart and soul of its beholder. THE LANGUAGE OF THE HEART Love Poems and Passions is a genuine expression of the feelings that have occurred or are presently occurring in the author's heart. Who can argue those feelings? Surely, nobody can except the creator himself of those beautiful and soul-guided verses which originated directly from the center of his heart. Many of the poems included in the book have been published in various magazines and school papers, as well as cited a number of times. The Editor's Choice Award of the International Library of Poetry. The book exemplifies the unique and vicarious expression of the author's artistic interest and unique passion in poetic artistry. The poems are rich in interweaving figures of speech and in the use of descriptive words and phrases that turn abstract insights and emotions into concrete thoughts and feelings. Early Modern Latin Love Poetry Paul White,2023-03-27 This volume sheds new light on the extraordinary richness and variety of love poetry written in Latin from the fifteenth to the eighteenth century It shows how Latin love poets reworked classical Roman and Greek models and engaged in dialogue with mediaeval and contemporary vernacular traditions of poetry They used the poetic language of love in Latin to reflect and comment on wider social ethical and literary issues and reconfigured its codes of representation in response to changing conceptions of love in the philosophical and religious spheres Their poetry often aligned itself with dominant discourses of power and gender but it could also be subtly subversive or even openly transgressive The Art of Love Poetry Erik Irving Gray,2018 The first study to offer an integral theory of love poetry examining why it is that poetry even more than other arts is so consistently associated with romantic love

Love Poems of Ghanānand ,1991 The poetry of Ghananand depicts love in all its aspects Breaking away from the orthodox poetic traditions he gave Hindi poetry spontaneity and freshness and brought it nearer to life He fell in love with Sujana a courtesan in the darbar of emperor Mohammad Shah Having refused to sing when asked by the Emperor he agreed when requested by her Arabic and Hebrew Love Poems in Al-Andalus Shari Lowin,2013-11-20 Arabic and Hebrew Love

Poems in al Andalus investigates a largely overlooked subset of Muslim and Jewish love poetry in medieval Spain hetero and homo erotic love poems written by Muslim and Jewish religious scholars in which the lover and his sensual experience of the beloved are compared to scriptural characters and storylines This book examines the ways in which the scriptural referents fit in with or differ from the traditional Andalusian poetic conventions The study then proceeds to compare the scriptural stories and characters as presented in the poems with their scriptural and exegetical sources This new intertextual analysis reveals that the Jewish and Muslim scholar poets utilized their sacred literature in their poems of desire as more than poetic ornamentation in employing Qur'anic heroes in their secular verses the Muslim poets presented a justification of profane love and sanctification of erotic human passions In the Hebrew lust poems which utilize biblical heroes we can detect subtle subversive and surprisingly placed interpretations of biblical accounts Moving beyond the concern with literary history to challenge the traditional boundaries between secular and religious poetry this book provides a new multidisciplinary approach to existing materials and will be of interest to students scholars and researchers of Islamic and Jewish Studies as well as to those with an interest in Hebrew and Arabic poetry of Islamic Spain
