Richard Wall Memorial Award Theatre Library Association Beginning in the 1920s audiences around the globe were seduced not only by Hollywood films but also by lavish movie theaters that were owned and operated by the major American film companies These theaters aimed to provide a quintessentially American experience Outfitted with American technology and accoutrements they allowed local audiences to watch American films in an American owned cinema in a distinctly American way In a history that stretches from Buenos Aires and Tokyo to Johannesburg and Cairo Ross Melnick considers these movie houses as cultural embassies He examines how the exhibition of Hollywood films became a constant flow of political and consumerist messaging selling American ideas products and power especially during fractious eras Melnick demonstrates that while Hollywood s marketing of luxury and consumption often struck a chord with local audiences it was also frequently tone deaf to new social cultural racial and political movements He argues that the story of Hollywood s global cinemas is not a simple narrative of cultural and industrial indoctrination and colonization Instead it is one of negotiation booms and busts successes and failures adoptions and rejections and a precursor to later conflicts over the spread of American consumer culture A truly global account Hollywood s Embassies shows how the entanglement of worldwide movie theaters with American empire offers a new way of understanding film history and the history of U S soft power Twentieth Century Fox Frederick Wasser,2020-08-18 This is the first scholarly history of Fox from its origins in 1904 to the present It builds upon research and histories of individual periods to describe how one company responded to a century long evolution of the audience nationally and globally In the beginning William Fox grabbed a once in a millennium opportunity to build a business based on a genuinely new art form This study explores the enduring legacy of F W Murnau Will Rogers Shirley Temple John Ford Spyros Skouras George Lucas James Cameron and many others offering discussion of those behind and in front of the camera delving deeply into the history and evolution of the studio Key films covered include The Iron Horse The Grapes of Wrath How Green Was My Valley Forever Amber All About Eve Cleopatra The Sound of Music Planet of the Apes Star Wars Titanic and Fight Club providing an extensive look at the successes and flops that shaped not only Twentieth Century Fox but the entire Hollywood landscape Through a chronological study the book charts the studio s impact right up to the present day providing a framework to allow us to look to the future of moviemaking and film consumption Lively and fresh in its approach this book is a comprehensive study of the studio for scholars students and enthusiasts of Hollywood cinema film history and media industries Joe and Marilyn C. David Heymann,2014-07 Traces the passionate and sometimes volatile relationship between Joe DiMaggio and Marilyn Monroe covering their sensational 1954 elopement and the troubles that led to their divorce nine months later American Zeus Taso G. Lagos,2018-02-05 Alexander Pantages was 13 when he arrived in the U S in the 1880s after contracting malaria in Panama He opened his first motion picture theater in 1902 and went on to build one of the largest and most important independently owned theater chains in the country At the height of the Pantages Theaters reach he owned or operated 78 theaters across the U S and Canada He amassed a fortune yet he could not read or write English In 1929 he was convicted of sexually assaulting a 17 year old dancer a scandal that destroyed his empire and reduced him to a pariah The day his grandest theater the Pantages Hollywood opened in 1930 he lay sick in a jailhouse infirmary His conviction was overturned a year later after an appeal to the California State Supreme Court but the question remains How should history judge this theater pioneer wealthy magnate and embodiment of the American Dream
