Last Rites Eddie Newton,2002-05-23 Chester Mudd had called Fable Texas his home for nearly three decades when the old woman mysteriously showed up one morning walking her dog He d become used to this predictable little town where everyone knew just about everyone else But his next door neighbor didn t have the first notion who this newcomer was Neither did his girlfriend No one seemed to have any idea where this old woman came from or who she was It was Chester Mudd s riddle He watched her for one long week She walked the dog every morning at precisely noon She walked around the block exactly two times Every day it took her exactly one half of an hour This pattern never varied Until now Until today Chester Mudd met the old woman outside on the sidewalk that passed by his front porch I am wondering why you are here Chester asked the old woman What else do you do when you ve been dead for thirty years she replied Dead A ghost Right here in Fable Right here in his own home What is it like being dead The old woman grinned sadly understanding more already about Fable in one week than Chester had figured out in years You tell me she answered I just got here Life is short So are these thirteen tales So read the Last Rites and get on with the rest of your days The Heart of Teaching

Stephen Wanhg,2013 The Heart of Teaching is a book about teaching and learning in the performing arts Its focus is on the inner dynamics of teaching the processes by which teachers can promote or undermine creativity itself It covers the many issues that teachers directors and choreographers experience from the frustrations of dealing with silent students and helping young artists unlearn their inhibitions to problems of resistance judgment and race in the classroom Wanhg raises questions about what can and what cannot be taught and opens a discussion about the social psychological and spiritual values that underlie the skills and techniques that teachers impart Subjects addressed include Question asking which kinds of questions encourage creativity and which can subvert the learning process Feedback how it can foster both dependence and independence in students Grading its meaning and meaninglessness Power relationships transference and counter transference The pivotal role of listening The Heart of Teaching speaks to experienced teachers and beginning teachers in all disciplines but is particularly relevant to those in the performing arts from which most of its examples are drawn It brings essential insight and honesty to the discussion of how to teach

The 11Th Demon Bruce Hennigan,2013-11-01 Jonathan Steel is a demon hunter by trade taking out demons with revenge as his motivator The demons have taken away people he has loved including the one woman who could have revealed his past to him He has already defeated two demons but he knows there are eleven more out there If he does not go after them they will come for him Now saddled with protecting both his new partner and his mentors nephew Steel returns to Louisiana where he must move into a house full of horrifying memories Meanwhile Vivian Darbonne a powerful demon who just lost her husband to Steel embarks on a desperate search for a mysterious artifact called the Ark of the Demon Rose just as a new evil cult rises from the darkness and threatens to engulf the world in chaos As seats of power are covertly altered within the government Steel knows that in order to defeat the cult he must first find an ancient chest that holds the secret to defeating the eleventh demon and most importantly power over the Council of Darkness In this third installment of the Jonathan Steel Chronicles Jonathan Steel and his colleagues once again must attempt to stop a demonic foe before chaos is unleashed on the world Enchanting Tales of Sky the Cockapoo
