The Killing Jar Melissa M. Marconi,2000 The Killing Jar Nicola Monaghan,2007-04-03 In her stunning debut Nicola Monaghan lays bare the gritty underbelly of life in Nottingham England Very early on Kerrie Ann begins to dream of the world beyond the rough council estate where she lives Her father is nowhere to be found her mother is a junkie and she is left to care for her little brother Clever brave and frighteningly independent Kerrie Ann has an unbreakable will to survive She befriends her eccentric elderly neighbor who teaches her about butterflies the Amazon and life outside of her tough neighborhood But even as Kerrie Ann dreams of a better life she becomes further entangled in the cycles of violence and drugs that rule the estate Brilliant brutal and tender The Killing Jar introduces a brave new voice in fiction Nicola Monaghan s devastating prose tells an unforgettable story of violence love and hope The Killing Jar - Based on a True Story Gloria Nixon-John,2012-06 A true crime narrative nonfiction account of one the youngest Americans ever convicted of murder and sentenced to death An important powerful book The Killing Jar Justin Zimmerman,Russel Brown,2020-08-18 A small Colorado town Three drug runners with a vanfilled with product Two police officers investigating suspicious activity Aheroic young woman with a violent past an innocent little brother and her deadfather s 38 police special And a throng of ravenous townspeople out of their minds with drug lust Mix and BANG See why producer Don Murphy Transformers calls The Killing Jar The most fun you can have legally Must a Violence Oni Buchanan, 2012-10-01 Oni Buchanan explores the problem of violence against the undefended elemental self through a variety of emotional and linguistic responses The violation itself is unspecified but involves the forced transformation from an instinctual animal self housed in the body and in the senses into a socialized time based citizen familiar with death decay and systemic injustice This exploration plays out through the twin challenges of perception and compassion Perception can bind us to the known world or cut us loose in dangerous horrific territory Compassion for other creatures wild or domesticated and sometimes both is born of perception of the hard limits and surprising insights encountered by attending to the bodies gestures and plights of others In Must a Violence the tones and personalities vary widely but trust is always placed in the five senses These poems gather and relay extraordinary sense data from inaudible sounds to long absent smells These deeply musical poems demand the reader attend to their sounds to the waveforms repetitions durations and delicate interrelationships of words In sounding out the problem of how to respond to violence and to the betrayal and domestication of that which is wild this book counters with aesthetic violence and disruption of its own opening the self to the unexpected powers of the senses and to encounters between wildness and domestication within the self Though never easy this openness creates the possibility for an all enveloping love that touches and joins all animals both nonhuman and human
