SEASON 1

The Killing

Sydney Hillel Schanberg

The Killing:

The Killing Wind Tan Hecheng, 2016-12-14 Over the course of 66 days in 1967 more than 4 000 class enemies including young children and the elderly were murdered in Daoxian a county in China's Hunan province The killings spread to surrounding counties resulting in a combined death toll of more than 9 000 Commonly known as the Daoxian massacre the killings were one of many acts of so called mass dictatorship and armed factional conflict that rocked China during the Cultural Revolution However in spite of the scope and brutality of the killings there are few detailed accounts of mass killings in China's countryside during the Cultural Revolution's most tumultuous years Years after the massacre journalist Tan Hecheng was sent to Daoxian to report on an official investigation into the killings Tan was prevented from publishing his findings in China but in 2010 he published the Chinese edition of The Killing Wind in Hong Kong Tan's first hand investigation of the atrocities accumulated over the course of more than 20 years blends his research with the recollections of survivors to provide a vivid account exploring how and why the massacre took place and describing its aftermath Dispelling the heroic aura of class struggle Tan reveals that most of the Daoxian massacre's victims were hard working peaceful members of the rural middle class blacklisted as landlords or rich peasants Tan also describes how political pressure and brainwashing turned ordinary people into heartless killing machines More than a catalog of horrors The Killing Wind is also a poignant meditation on memory moral culpability and the failure of the Chinese government to come to terms with the crimes of the Maoist era By painting a detailed portrait of this massacre Tan makes a broader argument about the long term consequences of the Cultural Revolution one of the most violent political movements of the twentieth century A compelling testament to the victims and survivors of the Daoxian massacre The Killing Wind is a monument to historical truth one that fills an immense gap in our understanding of the Mao era the Cultural Revolution and the status of truth in contemporary China

The Killing Consensus Graham Denyer Willis, 2015-03-21 We hold many assumptions about police work that it is the responsibility of the state or that police officers are given the right to kill in the name of public safety or self defense But in The Killing Consensus Graham Denyer Willis shows how in S o Paulo Brazil killing and the arbitration of normal killing in the name of social order are actually conducted by two groups the police and organized crime both operating according to parallel logics of murder Based on three years of ethnographic fieldwork Willis's book traces how homicide detectives categorize two types of killing the first resulting from resistance to police arrest which is often broadly defined and the second at the hands of a crime family known as the Primeiro Comando da Capital PCC Death at the hands of police happens regularly while the PCC's centralized control and strict moral code among criminals has also routinized killing ironically making the city feel safer for most residents In a fractured urban security environment where killing mirrors patterns of inequitable urbanization and historical exclusion along class gender and racial lines Denyer Willis's research finds that the city's cyclical periods of peace and violence can best be understood through an unspoken but mutually observed consensus on the right to kill This consensus hinges on common notions and street level practices of who can die where how and by whom revealing an empirically distinct configuration of authority that Denyer Willis calls sovereignty by consensus

The Killing Room John Manning, 2010-05-01 Once You Enter Old houses have their secrets The Young residence a beautiful Maine mansion overlooking the Atlantic is no exception But the secrets here are different They can kill The Only Way Out Carolyn Cartwright private detective and ex FBI agent has been hired by Howard Young to investigate a string of gruesome family deaths The crimes are horrific brutal and senseless And the time has come for the killing to begin again Is To Die One by one members of the Young family are chosen to die Old and young weak and strong no one is safe from a killer with a limitless thirst for revenge And the only way for Carolyn to uncover the shocking truth is to enter the room no one has ever left alive and make herself the next target Praise for John Manning's debut All the Pretty Girls Are Dead Brilliantly executed this one is not to be missed Kevin O'Brien New York Times bestselling author If you like Dean Koontz you'll love John Manning Wendy Corsi Staub New York Times bestselling author

The Killing Season Ralph Compton, 1996-06-01 A gunfighter rides into legend in this western from

USA Today bestselling author Ralph Compton It was the 1870s Jesse and Frank James led daring raids on banks and trains Doc Holliday's name struck dread in the hearts of men and Wild Bill Hickok played poker with bullets in the hole A young killer named Billy the Kid was hunted by a determined lawman and a General named Custer took the Seventh Cavalry into Dakota Territory One man rides this untamed frontier like a shadow of death His name is Nathan Stone and he had learned to kill on the vengeance trail He would have stopped after settling the score with his parents' savage slayers But when you're the greatest gunfighter of all there's no peace or resting place And it's Nathan Stone's destiny to fight for survival against the most famed and feared figures from Texas to the Black Hills on both sides of the law More Than Six Million Ralph Compton Books In Print Beyond the Killing Fields Sydney Hillel Schanberg, 2010 Warfare defence The killing of the Beasts Paul Weightman, 2020-01-20 Aleksandar Borko a 38 year old Serbian immigrant and 36 year old Lucas Frayne an American born citizen Right from an early age Borko and Frayne had unusual and sadistic appetites for all manner of twisted and vile acts of torture and murder For years the death toll of their victims escalated between 2008 to 2018 Will The FBI and Law enforcement agencies capture them The Killing of Bonnie Garland Willard Gaylin, 1995-09-01 A powerful and passionate indictment of the use of psychiatric testimony in criminal cases The Cleveland Plain Dealer A year after Richard Herrin confessed to killing his girlfriend Bonnie Garland he was found not guilty of murder His crime he pleaded was committed under extreme emotional disturbance excusing him from maximum responsibility He was convicted on the reduced charge of manslaughter In this incisive examination of the murder the trial and its aftermath a distinguished psychiatrist addresses the issue of the insanity defense He shows how psychiatric testimony can distort court proceedings and brilliantly analyzes the conflict between the individual rights of the accused and society's right to justice Invitation to Madness (The Killing Game--Book 2) Jaden Skye, 2016-01-08 Two young female patients are found dead in a semi private mental hospital in Queens Each is found on the floor in their rooms jugulars slashed The hospital classifies them as suicides but when a third patient is found dead a terrifying question arises is there a serial killer on the loose in the hospital The FBI Behavioral Unit calls in its star criminal profiler Tracy Wrenn to provide her unique insights to crack the case Immersed in the world of the hospital Tracy encounters a wide array of disturbing and perplexing characters each with their own level of psychosis Tracy must plunge into the depths of the disturbed minds of both inmates and staff as she tries to sort out what is real and what is fantasy and as she begins to learn just how twisted the human mind can be A shocking twist culminates in an ending Tracy can never expect as she finds herself on the brink and can only hope to return Book 3 in The Killing Game will be released soon Targeted Killings Claire Finkelstein, Jens David Ohlin, Andrew Altman, 2012-03-01 The war on terror is remaking conventional warfare The protracted battle against a non state organization the demise of the confinement of hostilities to an identifiable battlefield the extensive involvement of civilian combatants and the development of new and more precise military technologies have all conspired to require a rethinking of the law and morality of war Just war theory

as traditionally articulated seems ill suited to justify many of the practices of the war on terror The raid against Osama Bin Laden s Pakistani compound was the highest profile example of this strategy but the issues raised by this technique cast a far broader net every week the U S military and CIA launch remotely piloted drones to track suspected terrorists in hopes of launching a missile strike against them In addition to the public condemnation that these attacks have generated in some countries the legal and moral basis for the use of this technique is problematic Is the U S government correct that nations attacked by terrorists have the right to respond in self defense by targeting specific terrorists for summary killing Is there a limit to who can legitimately be placed on the list There is also widespread disagreement about whether suspected terrorists should be considered combatants subject to the risk of lawful killing under the laws of war or civilians protected by international humanitarian law Complicating the moral and legal calculus is the fact that innocent bystanders are often killed or injured in these attacks This book addresses these issues Featuring chapters by an unrivalled set of experts it discusses all aspects of targeted killing making it unmissable reading for anyone interested in the implications of this practice
