Faith and the Mystery of God Maurice Wiles, 2010-10-01 This book is a lucid examination of the relation between faith and reason in light of the varied forms assumed by Christianity in the past as well as in the present The backdrop for the examination is change change in theology church life and society itself and the purpose of the examination is to recall the Christian community to its true function as a unifying force in the world In an effort to enlighten our future Wiles shows how the concept of God as Spirit points toward a way of understanding God that does substantial justice both to the main insights of traditional faith and to the critical challenges of contemporary reflection Faith and the Mystery of God delineates an intimately personal view of Christian faith along with grounds for holding it Thus it is intended to help people affirm their belief in God in the modern world in the face of all odds

WHY WE GO TO CHURCH ISAIAH MACWEALTH, Throughout the hundreds of years of the existence of the Church many in the Church have lost an understanding of her true identity purpose credibility integrity and God given authority This is in part because of several prevailing erroneous ideologies about the Church These ideologies have weakened the core fabrication and foundation the Church making her seem almost ineffective irrelevant and powerless in the world today Any church that has lost this foundational and relevant understanding cannot effectively fulfill its calling to reach the world It is therefore my desire in this book to awaken in you the understanding of the Church's position and authority in Christ Jesus and in the world

by first exposing some of these erroneous ideologies and attempting to create an understanding of the true identity purpose position and authority of the Church
