The Languages And Literatures Of Africa:

The Languages & Literatures of Africa Alain Ricard, 2004 An historical overview provides new insights into the literatures of Africa both oral and written The Languages and Literatures of Africa Alain Ricard, 2004-01-01 In this work African literatures are presented in a new perspective focusing on the dialogue between languages and literatures An historical overview provides new insights into the literatures of Africa both oral and written Literatures in African Languages B. W. Andrzejewski, S. Pilaszewicz, W. Tyloch, 1985-11-21 Although African literatures in English and French are widely known outside Africa those in the African languages themselves have not received comparable attention In this book a number have been selected for survey by fourteen specialist writers providing the reader with an introduction to this very wide field and a body of reference material which includes extensive bibliographies and biographical information on African authors Theoretical issues such as genre divisions are discussed in the essays and the historical social and political forces at work in the creation and reception of African literature are examined Literature is treated as an art whose medium is language so that both the oral and written forms are encompassed This book will be of value not only to readers concerned with the cultures of Africa but to all those with an interest in the literary phenomena of the world in general African Languages and Literatures in the 21st Century Esther Mukewa Lisanza, Leonard Muaka, 2019-08-02 This edited book examines the crucial role still played by African languages in pedagogy and literatures in the 21st century generating insights into how they effectively serve cultural needs across the African continent and beyond Boldly positioning African languages as key resources in the 21st century chapters focus on themes such as language revolt by marginalized groups at grassroots level the experience of American students learning African languages female empowerment through the use of African languages in music film and literary works and immigration issues The contributions are written by scholars of language literature education and linguistics and the book will be of interest to students and scholars in these and related areas Africa and Its Diaspora Languages, Literature, and Culture Oluseye Adesola, Akintunde Oyetade, Laide Sheba, 2019-11-26 The text celebrates the academic achievements of Professor Olasope Oyelaran It brings together over 20 papers by an international group of scholars on African diaspora languages literatures and culture representing four generations all of whom have been influenced by Oyelaran's work in one way or another Edited by three African scholars in the USA UK and Nigeria the volume presents current research on topics in applied and socio linguistics phonology morphology syntax oral and written literature and Yoruba language and culture in African diasporas in Brazil Cuba and Trinidad The constellation of topics presented here will enlarge the reader's understanding of a number of issues in the field of African and African diaspora languages literatures and cultures today As such the book makes an important contribution to the expanding work on the linguistic and cultural interface of Africa and its Brazilian Cuban and Trinidadian diasporas The Language of African Literature Edmund L. Epstein, Robert Kole, 1998 In this unprecedented anthology some of the most prolific and widely read African novelists are analysed African Languages, Literatures, and Postcolonial Modernity Samba Camara, Mohamed Mwamzandi, 2024-01-26 This book offers a fresh look into the languages of postcolonial modernity in Africa and to a lesser degree its diaspora It foregrounds the notion of postcolonial modernity in reference to modernization as experienced in the postcolony and its contemporary legacies and investigates how African languages and literatures both as means of communication and as instruments of cultural agency have embodied and mediated modernity Each chapter grapples with the literary or linguistic dimensions of postcolonial modernity as portrayed in African novels film poetry or popular music or as embodied in African and Afro diasporic languages and dialects The chapters also reveal how literature and language respectively document and embody discourses phenomena histories ideologies and beliefs that resulted from the legacies of colonialism

African Language Literatures Albert S. Gérard, 1981 Nigerian Languages, Literatures, Culture and Reforms Ozo-mekuri Ndimele, 2016-04-30 The papers in this volume were selected from the Silver Jubilee edition of the Annual Conference of the Linguistic Association of Nigerian LAN which was held at the Nigerian Educational Research and Development Council NERDC Abuja Nigeria The Silver Jubilee edition is dedicated to the father of Nigerian Linguistics Professor Emeritus Ayo Bamgbose Professor Emeritus Bamgbose was the first indigenous Professor of Linguistics in Nigeria and the first black African to teach linguistics in any known university south of the Sahara He was there from the very beginning and together with co operation of people such as the late Professor Kay Williamson he nurtured Nigerian linguistics He is not just a foremost Nigerian linguist but also a most famous respected celebrated distinguished and cherished African linguist of all times To be candid Nigerian linguistics is synonymous with Professor Emeritus Bamgbose In 58 well written chapters by experts in their fields the book covers aspects of Nigerian languages linguistics literatures and culture The papers have not been categorized into sections rather they flow hence there is some overlapping in the arrangement The book is an essential resource for all who are interested to learn about current trends in the study of languages linguistics and related subject matters in Nigeria

Black Africa V. Klima, K.F. Ruzicka, P. Zima, 1976 In October 1972 our Czech written book Literary and African Literatures of Black Africa was published in Prague presenting a survey of an extensive field The publication which was signed at that time by all three authors differed from most contemporary introductions to the study of African literatures in a threefold way a The authors attempted to cover various literary and literary efforts in the area roughly delimited by Senegal in the west Kenya in the east Lake Chad in the north and the Cape in the south We were well aware even at that time that neither technically nor linguistically would it be possible to cover all literary efforts within that area We did try however to include in our survey both the literacies and literatures written in the Indo European language family English French Portuguese and in at least several of the major African languages of the area We did not attempt an exhaustive description but wished rather to show the mutual relationships which emerge if the literatures of this area written either in the major language family or in the African languages are studied not as isolated phenomena but as mutually complementary features b As two of us were linguists and one was a literary historian we did not limit our analysis of the developing literacies and literatures to the purely cultural and literary aspects Our intention waR to deal whcre and if it was relevant not only with the process of African literary development but also with the simultaneous complementar
