Indigenous Peoples in Isolation in the Peruvian Amazon Beatriz Huertas Castillo, International Work Group for Indigenous Affairs, 2004 This book offers a historic and anthropological perspective from which to understand the fragility of isolated indigenous groups in the face of contact with outside society It helps us appreciate the importance in terms of cultural and biological diversity of safeguarding their territories for both their future and that of the human race Drawing on scientific and legal principles international agreements and primarily from the perspective of human rights Beatriz Huertas Castillo presents solid arguments concerning the urgent need for national and international efforts to defend the territories cultural integrity and life ways of isolated indigenous peoples BOOK JACKET The Central Amazon Floodplain Wolfgang J. Junk, 2013-03-09 Floodplains are ecosystems which are driven by periodic inundation and oscillation between terrestrial and aquatic phases An understanding of such pulsing systems is only possible by studying both phases and linking the results into an integrated overview This book presents the results of a 15 year study of the structure and function of one of the largest tropical floodplains the Amazon River floodplain It covers qualitative aspects e g adaptations of aquatic and terrestrial organisms to the flood pulse as well as quantitative aspects e g studies of biomass primary production decomposition and nutrient cycles The authors interpret their findings and the most important data from other studies under an integrating scientific concept the Flood Pulse Concept

Frontier Making in the Amazon Antonio Augusto Rossotto Ioris, 2020-01-21 This book discusses the outcomes of more than ten years of research in the southern tracts of the Amazon region and addresses the expansion of the agricultural frontier consolidation of the agribusiness based economy and expansion of regional infrastructure roads dams urban centres etc It combines extensive empirical evidence with the international literature on frontier making and regional Amazonian development and adopts a critical politico geographical perspective that will benefit scholars in various other disciplines This book is intended to push the current theoretical and methodological boundaries regarding the controversies and impacts of agribusiness in the region A new international scientific network led by the author is investigating the broader context of the themes analysed here

The Amazon Euclides da Cunha, 2006-11-06 In the eight pieces that make up Land Without History first published in Portuguese in 1909 Euclides da Cunha offers a rare look into twentieth century Amazonia and the consolidation of South American nation states Mixing scientific jargon and poetic language the essays in Land Without History provide breathtaking descriptions of the Amazonian rivers and the ever changing nature that surrounds them Brilliantly translated by Ronald Sousa Land Without History offers a view of the ever changing ecology of the Amazon and a compelling testimony to the Brazilian colonial enterprise and its imperialist tendencies with regard to neighboring nation states
