The Last Capital, Danville, Virginia, and the Final Days of the Confederacy John H. Brubaker, 1979 The Capitals of the Confederacy Michael C. Hardy, 2015-04-20 A handy all in one reference on the Confederate capitals Rich details and effective anecdotes evoke a real sense of the people places and events The Civil War Monitor The Confederate States of America boasted five capital cities in four years The center of the Confederate government moved from one Southern city to another including Montgomery Richmond Danville Greensboro and Charlotte From the heady early days of the new country to the dismal last hours of a transient government each city played a role in the Confederate story While some of these sites are commemorated with impressive monuments and museums others offer scant evidence of their importance in Civil War history Join award winning historian Michael C Hardy as he recounts the harrowing history of the capitals of the Confederacy Includes photos The Era of the Civil War--1820-1876 Louise A. Arnold-Friend, US Army Military History Institute, 1982 Civil War Soldiers of Edgar County, Illinois W. Edward Rolison, 2023-10-30 Civil War Soldiers of Edgar County Illinois Harrison and William Nay tells the story of two brothers who served in the Civil War and wrote home to their sister from their places of duty One was young single and a volunteer in 1862 The other was forty married with six children and one on the way when he was drafted in 1864 The younger was captured in the Battle of Chickamauga and spent nine months in Confederate prisons finally dying of scurvy at Danville Virginia The older was drafted three months after his brother died in 1864 and served in the Army of the Cumberland participating in the Battles of Franklin and Nashville With the end of the war in April 1865 the older brother was mustered out of the service and returned to his home in time to celebrate the Fourth of July There he became a large and prosperous farmer until his death in 1898 This is also the story of their sister Lucinda Nay Yowell and her descendants who preserved the letters until they came to the attention of the author some 150 years later The author presents this volume in recognition of the 158th anniversary of the end of the Civil War and in recognition of all the ordinary soldiers who have served so that this nation under God shall have a new birth of freedom and that government of the people by the people for the people shall not perish from the earth The author Dr W Edward Rolison is Professor Emeritus and former Head of the Department of the Social Sciences at Southwestern Oklahoma State University at Weatherford where he taught political science and history for thirty five years He recently published On Democracy Essays on Principles Fundamental to American Government and the 2020 Presidential Election 2023 Old Abe is a hard man to work for and he pays his hands when he gets ready Harrison Nay December 26 1862 Harriet informs me she is trying to get me a substitute If she does it would suit me very well as this is rather rough for a delicate constitution like mine William Nay December 5 1864 I heard this morning that old Abe was dead I don't think it is so I am afraid it ain't I would pull off my coat and holler a big holler but I am afraid it ain't so Then they would laugh at me So I will wait a while Nay cousin John Lawler April 16 1865 I found the stories to be both interesting and informative from surrendered to Ulysses S Grant at Appomattox Virginia in April 1865 The Confederacy still had tens of thousands of soldiers under arms in three main field armies and countless smaller commands scattered throughout the South Although pressed by Union forces at varying degrees all of the remaining Confederate armies were capable of continuing the war if they chose to do so But they did not even when their political leaders ordered them to continue the fight Convinced that most civilians no longer wanted to continue the war the senior Confederate military leadership over the course of several weeks surrendered their armies under different circumstances Gen Joseph Johnston surrendered his army in North Carolina only after contentious negotiations with Gen William Tecumseh Sherman Gen Richard Taylor ended the fighting in Alabama in the face of two massive Union incursions into the state rather than try to consolidate with other Confederate armies Personal rivalry also played a part in his practical considerations to surrender Gen Edmund Kirby Smith had the decision to surrender taken out of his hands disastrous economic conditions in his Trans Mississippi Department had eroded morale to such an extent that his soldiers demobilized themselves leaving Kirby Smith a general without an army The end of the Confederacy was a messy and complicated affair a far cry from the tidy closure associated with the events at Appomattox The Confederate Battle Flag John M.
