The Last Summer Of The Men Shortage:

The Last Summer of the Men Shortage Geraldine Halls, 2019-11-11 Men are hard to come by in the summer of 1945 and those that Dinah does find are stolen by Claudia with appalling regularity Dinah and Claudia are young Adelaide women teaming up to enjoy their independence in exotic Sydney during days drenched in sunshine and sentimental songs Claudia is in love with Andrew who has a wife a way of life and a taste for cruelty The victim of his sadistic irony is Dinah who cannot understand why he is so anxious to find her a man The reason it transpires is a practical one The Last Summer of the Men Shortage Geraldine Halls, 1977 This is My Friend's Chair Geraldine Halls, 1995 Australian saga Author also writes thriller as Charlotte Jay My Boyfriend's Father Ben Winch, 1996 When sixteen year old Sylvia meets her boyfriend's father Phillip she is quickly captivated by his stories of travel and his reckless contempt for nineties convention Still a rebel in his forties Phillip's world is slowly collapsing In the Land of the Magic Pudding Barbara Santich, 2000 An amusing anthology of Australian cooking by some of our most popular writers Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend Dr Donna Coates, 2023-11-01 War is traditionally considered a male experience By extension the genre of war literature is a male dominated field and the tale of the battlefield remains the privileged and only canonised war story In Australia although women have written extensively about their wartime experiences their voices have been distinctively silenced Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend calls for a re definition of war literature to include the numerous voices of women writers and further recommends a re reading of Australian national literatures with women's war writing foregrounded to break the hold of a male dominated literary tradition and pass on a vital but unexplored women's tradition Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend examines the rich body of World Wars I and II and Vietnam War literature by Australian women providing the critical attention and treatment that they deserve Donna Coates records the reaction of Australian women writers to these conflicts illuminating the complex role of gender in the interpretation of war and in the cultural history of twentieth century Australia By visiting an astonishing number of unfamiliar non canonical texts Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend profoundly alters our understanding of how Australian women writers have interpreted war especially in a nation where the experience of colonising a frontier has spawned enduring myths of identity and statehood The Labour Gazette Canada. Department of Labour, 1909 Increased Price of Coal United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Interstate Commerce, 1919

National War Service Bill, Hearings ..., on S. 666 ..., Jan 12, 19--. United States. Congress. Senate.
