The Last To Die A Story Of War In The Carolinas And Virginia:

The Last to Die Graham K. Strickland,2000-12-01 The 30th North Carolina Infantry in the Civil War William Thomas Venner,2018-01-12 At the outbreak of the Civil War the men of the 30th North Carolina rushed to join the regiment proclaiming we will whip the Yankees or give them a right to a small part of our soil say 2 feet by 6 feet Once the Tar Heels experienced combat their attitudes changed One rifleman recorded We came to a Yankee field hospital we moved piles of arms feet hands By 1865 the unit s survivors reflected on their experiences wondering when and if I return home will I be able to fit in Drawing on letters journals memoirs and personnel records this history follows the civilian soldiers from their mustering in to the war s final moments at Appomattox The 30th North Carolina had the distinction of firing at Abraham Lincoln on July 12 1864 as the president stood upon the ramparts of Ft Stevens outside Washington D C and firing the last regimental volley before the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia North Carolina's Civil War Soldiers - Volume 1 - 1861 Barry Munson,2019-12-12 Material for this volume was taken from W W Holden s Raleigh newspaper the North Carolina Standard These articles from the year 1861 written by soldiers and citizens who sent letters and telegrams for publication are the raw material of history presented without an historian s comments or revisions During this period newspapers both Southern and Northern relied heavily on citizens to submit first hand accounts of the conflict Unfortunately Southern newspapers were far behind the Northern ones in employing professional war correspondents to record the conflict This made Southern citizen journalists extremely critical to the spreading the war news across the Southern states The Civil War in North Carolina: The Mountains Christopher M. Watford,2003-01-01 You will perceive by this I am at least in the Confederate service Since I have been here I have had a severe sickness but am glad to say at present I am well though I fear my sickness would have incapacitated me for active service In all probability our regiment will be stationed here permanently for the winter to guard the bridge across the Watauga River Private John H Phillips Company E 62nd Regiment NC Troops Camp Carter Tennessee October 13 1862 As with volume 1 The Piedmont this work presents letters and diary entries and a few other documents that tell the experiences of soldiers and civilians from the mountain counties of North Carolina during the Civil War The counties included are Alleghany Ashe Buncombe Burke Caldwell Cherokee Clay Haywood Henderson Jackson McDowell Macon Madison Mitchell Polk Rutherford Surry Transylvania Watauga Wilkes and Yancey The book is arranged chronologically 1861 through 1865 Before each letter or diary entry background information is provided about the writer The Investment Weekly ,1918 The 36th Infantry United States Colored Troops in the Civil War James K. Bryant, II,2014-01-02 During the Civil War African American war correspondent Thomas Morris Chester was so inspired by the men of the 36th United States Colored Troops that he declared the group to be a model regiment Composed primarily of former slaves recruited from Union occupied areas of eastern North Carolina and southeastern Virginia the 36th USCT participated in large scale expeditions to liberate slaves guarded Confederate prisoners at major POW camps served in the trenches before Petersburg and Richmond and stood as one of the first units to enter the abandoned Confederate capital on April 3 1865 This volume which includes a complete regimental roster explores the background of these former slaves and their families examines their initial recruitment and chronicles their military contributions throughout the war More than a unit history the story of the 36th USCT offers a vivid portrait of the challenging transition from slavery to freedom The Civil War and Yadkin County, North Carolina Frances H. Casstevens, 2015-09-01 Located in the western piedmont of North Carolina Yadkin County was hardly a hotbed of rebellion at the start of the Civil War Many of the 1 200 men from Yadkin who served in the Confederate Army did so with distinction but a number deserted Some of these holed up in the Bond School House and when the militia attempted to arrest them four were killed and several others were wounded This is a comprehensive accounting of how the county responded to the Civil War and the effect it had on Yadkin s citizens civilian and military alike

Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1991 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873

Private Confederacies James J. Broomall, 2019-01-10 How did the Civil War emancipation and Reconstruction shape the masculinity of white Confederate veterans As James J Broomall shows the crisis of the war forced a reconfiguration of the emotional worlds of the men who took up arms for the South Raised in an antebellum culture that demanded restraint and shaped white men to embrace self reliant masculinity Confederate soldiers lived and fought within military units where they experienced the traumatic strain of combat and its privations together all the while being separated from suffering families Military service provoked changes that escalated with the end of slavery and the Confederacy s military defeat Returning to civilian life Southern veterans questioned themselves as never before sometimes suffering from terrible self doubt Drawing on personal letters and diaries Broomall argues that the crisis of defeat ultimately necessitated new forms of expression between veterans and among men and women On the one hand war led men to express levels of emotionality and vulnerability previously assumed the domain of women On the other hand these men also embraced a virulent martial masculinity that they wielded during Reconstruction and beyond to suppress freed peoples and restore white rule through paramilitary organizations and the Ku Klux Klan

North Carolina Civil War Obituaries, Regiments 1 through 46 E.B. Munson, 2015-09-15 North Carolina sent more than 125 000 men and boys to fight the Civil War It is estimated that about 40 000 lost their lives on the battlefield or by disease Most were sent home for burial in family plots or community churchyards but thousands could not be identified or could not be transported and were interred in unmarked graves across the country Many never had an obituary published Others had obituaries that included directions to the deceased s final resting place This compilation of obituaries from North Carolina newspapers documents the date and cause of death for hundreds of soldiers with many providing place of burial surviving relatives last words accounts by comrades and details of military service
