panthers which hunt by day as well as by night Why do you suppose we brought two rifles demanded the white At Kompong Thom they told me you were a good shot and a brave man You knew that we should have no need for rifles up to this point No sir you have lost your nerve at the last minute and I do not believe that it is because of tigers or wild elephants There are other things deep in the jungle my lord that no man may look upon and live What for example demanded King The ghosts of my ancestors answered the Cambodian the Khmers who dwelt here in great cities ages ago Within the dark shadows of the jungle the ruins of their cities still stand and down the dark aisles of the forest pass the ancient kings and warriors and little sad faced queens on ghostly elephants Fleeing always from the horrible fate that overtook them in life they pass for ever down the corridors of the jungle and with them are the millions of the ghostly dead that once were their subjects We might escape My Lord the Tiger and the wild elephants but no man may look upon the ghosts of the dead Khmers and live We shall be out before dark insisted King They are abroad both by day and by night said the Cambodian It is the curse of Siva the Destroyer King shrugged his shoulders stamped out his cigarette and picked up his rifle Wait for me here then he said I shall be out before dark You will never come out said the Cambodian Beyond the ravine savage mysterious rose the jungle its depth screened from view by the spectral trunks of fromagers and a tangle of bamboo At first the man could find no opening in that solid wall of vegetation In its sheath at his side hung a heavy knife but already the young day was so oppressively hot that the man did not relish the idea of exhausting himself at the very outset of his adventure if he could find some easier way That it would be still hotter he knew for Cambodia lies but twelve degrees above the equator in the same latitude as Nicaragua the Sudan and other places infamous for their heat
