The Last Hunter Jeremy Robinson, 2011-11 I no longer exist My kidnapping breaking and corruption at the hands of the half human half demon Nephilim began the journey to nothingness I had hoped to one day rejoin my loved ones in the outside world but before I realized it twenty years had passed Time is a distance I cannot traverse If there is any memory of me it is distant Worse the spirit of Nephil Lord of the Nephilim used my connection with the continent to decimate the surface world I ve done horrible things in the past but I m now responsible for the deaths of billions Billions God And so I have removed myself from the physical world and Nephil s reach to live out eternity in Tartarus a place of endless torture where the burden I carry crushes my soul driving me to madness I am weak and cold My abilities are gone And I am not alone in this hell There are things here more horrible than I could have imagined But as much as I think I deserve this fate I m driven to find a way to escape To exist again To return to my new family Em and Luca To set things right I am Solomon Ull Vincent The Last Hunter and I will exist again The Last Hunter Ascent parallels the events in Antarktos Rising an adult thriller also by Robinson upon which the Antarktos Saga is based Read them together for the full experience The final two books in the Antarktos Saga will complete both storylines as they merge

The Last Hunter's Rage Diana J. Vargas, 2024-04-24 This is it He s going to die and I ll be free At the last second he moved and I was suddenly pinned up against the wall the silver dagger now in his hand He pressed the blade to my throat a sadistic grin creeping across his face Oh Reese he purred Are you in trouble now He leaned closer his lips brushing my jaw I inhaled softly Please I said my voice shaky In a world where the human population has been overrun by all manner of supernatural entities defiance is met with death Humans are forced to be living blood bags for vampires test subjects for witches and warlocks and the slaves and servants of werewolves Reese Hearn remembers the time before When supernatural beings hid in the shadows afraid to show their faces to the world The time before Hunters became the prey before they were tracked down and killed Every last one of them Except for Reese Fueled by a dark past she wrecks havoc across the supernatural world in Toronto armed only by stakes a silver dagger and a lust for revenge Then she kills the younger brother of Elijah Randon Toronto's Alpha the Alpha of the largest pack in North America And he is not one to forgive easily Then again neither is Reese Unfortunately Little Hunter I have my own game to play

Comparatizing Taiwan Shu-mei Shih, Ping-hui Liao, 2014-10-17 As the site of crossings of colonizers settlers merchants and goods island nations such as Taiwan have seen a rich confluence of cultures where peoples and languages were either forced to mix or did so voluntarily due largely to colonial conquest and their crucial role in world economy Through an examination of socio cultural phenomena Comparatizing Taiwan situates Taiwan globally comparatively and relationally to bring out the nation's innate richness This book examines Taiwan in relation to other islands cultures or nations in terms of culture geography history politics and economy Comparisons include China Korea Canada Hong Kong Macau Ireland Malaysia Japan New Zealand South Africa the United States and the Caribbean and these comparisons present a number of different issues alongside a range of sometimes divergent implications By exploring Taiwan's many relationalities material as well as symbolic over a significant historical and geographical span the contributors move to expand the horizons of Taiwan studies and reveal the valuable insights that can be obtained by viewing nations societies and cultures in comparison Through this process the book offers crucial reflections on how to compare and how to study small nations This truly interdisciplinary book will be welcomed by students and scholars interested in Taiwan studies Sinophone studies comparative cultural studies postcolonial studies and literary studies

Indigenous Writers of Taiwan John Balcom, Ying-tish Balcom, 2005-07-27 Few people beyond the shores of Taiwan are aware that it is home to a population of indigenous peoples who for more than fifteen thousand years have lived on the island Over the years through the Chinese imperial period the Japanese occupation and for most of the twentieth century the indigenous peoples of Taiwan were marginalized and deprived of rights However with the lifting of martial law in 1987 new government policies regarding ethnic groups and growing interest in Taiwan's aboriginal peoples indigenous writing began to blossom With its intense and lyrical explorations of a fading culture indigenous writing has become an important topic of discussion in Taiwanese literary circles This collection of indigenous literature is the first such anthology in English In selecting the stories essays and poems for the anthology the editors provide a representative sampling from each of Taiwan's nine indigenous tribes The writers explore such themes as the decline of traditional ways of life in Taiwan's aboriginal communities residual belief in ancestral spirits assimilation into a society dominated by Han

Chinese and the psychological and economic encroachment of the outside world Their writings offer previously unheard perspectives on the plight of aboriginal cultures and the experiences of Taiwanese minorities John Balcom has included an introduction to provide the reader with background information on Taiwan's indigenous peoples The introduction addresses the origins of Taiwan's Austronesian peoples and general information on their culture languages and history A discussion of the growth and development of indigenous literature its sociolinguistic and cultural significance and the difficulties faced by such writers is also included

MirrorWorld Jeremy Robinson, 2015-04-28 Crazy has no memory and feels no fear Dangerous and unpredictable he's locked away in SafeHaven a psychiatric hospital where he spends the long days watching Wheel of Fortune and wondering what the outside world smells like When a mysterious visitor arrives and offers him a way out Crazy doesn't hesitate to accept But outside the hospital Crazy is faced with a fear fueled world on the brink of nuclear annihilation and he finds himself relocated to Neuro Inc a secretive corporation with shady government ties After discovering evidence of human experimentation he escapes with a syringe the contents of which are unknown to him but precious to Neuro Cornered and with a complete disregard for the results Crazy makes himself indispensable by injecting the substance into his leg The mystery drug opens his eyes to a world beyond human experience where fear is a weapon and the shadows hide the source of mankind's nightmares Struggling to understand his new abilities Crazy allies himself with the company he fled and begins peeling back the layers of his past the brewing war between worlds how he can stop it and what he did to start it With MirrorWorld Robinson whose trademarked pacing and inventive plots which have been highly praised by bestselling authors like Jonathan Maberry Scott Sigler and James Rollins treats readers to a wildly imaginative frenetically paced thriller exploring the origins of fear

Appendices: Persistent Traditions Luc W.S.W. Amkreutz, 2013-12-19 The adoption of agriculture is one of the major developments in human history Archaeological studies have demonstrated that the trajectories of Neolithisation in Northwest Europe were diverse This book presents a study into the archaeology of the communities involved in the process of Neolithisation in the Lower Rhine Area 5500-2500 cal BC It elucidates the role played by the indigenous communities in relation to their environmental context and in view of the changes that becoming Neolithic brought about This volume contains the appendices to the thesis Persistent traditions A long term perspective on communities in the process of Neolithisation in the Lower Rhine Area 5500-2500 cal BC These constitute a comprehensive inventory of 159 mostly excavated archaeological sites in the Lower Rhine Area for which general characteristics were recorded Their analysis shows that the succession of Late Mesolithic Swifterbant culture Hazendonk group and Vlaardingense culture societies represents a continuous long term tradition of inhabitation of the wetlands and wetland margins of this area forming a culturally continuous record of communities in the transition to agriculture The site catalogue forms both an overview of and detailed introduction into the site based archaeology of this time frame After demonstrating the diversity of the Mesolithic the subsequent developments regarding Neolithisation are studied from an indigenous perspective

Foregrounding the relationship between local communities and the dynamic wetland landscape the archaeological evidence regarding its regional inhabitation points to long term flexible behaviour and pragmatic decisions being made For the interpretation of Neolithisation this study offers a complementary approach to existing research Instead of arguing for a short transition based on the economic importance of domesticates and cultigens at sites the emphasis is placed on the persistent traditions of the communities involved New elements instead of bringing about radical changes are shown to be attuned to existing hunter gatherer practices By documenting indications of the mentalit of the inhabitants of the wetlands it is demonstrated that their mindset remained essentially Mesolithic for millennia Ecoambiguity Karen
