Comparative Studies in African Dirge Poetry Gloria Monica T. Emezue, 2001 Comparative Studies in African Dirge Poetry is an important contribution to research in African literature by Nigerian scholar GMT Emezue Emezue sets out to portray the role and function of African dirge Moving from the general African milieu to the specific Igbo heritage she explores written and oral modes of poetic expressions Emezue also posits a theory of the African dirge with features comparatively distinctive from the formalised structures of western art GMT Emezue s interest in traditional African dirge songs and modern poetry is borne from her conviction that nowhere in the corpus of oral poetry have there been more works of heightened creativity than the dirge forms Africa's Big Five and Other Wildlife Filmmakers Jean Hartley, 2010 Jean Hartley born in Kenya is acknowledged as being the first to legitimise fixing for wildlife film crews Over the last 25 years she has worked on over a thousand films the vast majority being about wildlife and nature She features five of the great film makers who all started their careers in Kenya in the 1950s legends whom she is proud to call personal friends Watching all of their films and many more she became fascinated by the history of film making in Kenya and determined to find out when it all started In this insightful book she traces the roots of wildlife film back a hundred years drawing on accounts of the original film makers and the professional hunters who guided those early safaris She tracks the changes from those grainy speeded up silent films through to the technologically perfect High Definition and 3D films that are being made today
