Superstars of Men's Tennis Paula Edelson,1998 Provides a brief look at some of the major players in men s tennis from the late 1800s to the 1990s Superstars of Men's Track and Field Fred McMane,1998-01-01 A brief overview of track and field competitions precedes profiles of six champions Bob Mathias Roger Bannister Al Oerter Edwin Moses Carl Lewis and Michael Johnson Jeff Herman's Guide to Book Publishers, Editors & Literary Agents Jeff Herman,2003 A guide to the names and specialties of American and Canadian publishers editors and literary agents includes information on the acquisition process and on choosing literary agents The Fastest Men on Earth Neil Duncanson,2021-05-27 With an exclusive foreword by Usain Bolt The Fastest Men on Earth tells the fascinating inside stories of the Olympic Men s 100m Champions It takes just under ten seconds to run but the results of the Olympic men s 100 metres are etched forever into history In The Fastest Men on Earth journalist Neil Duncanson tells the stories of the 25 athletes who ve been crowned champions in the event and earned the coveted title of Fastest Man on Earth Each chapter explores the fascinating inspiring and occasionally tragic lives of these supremely talented sprinters as well as the intense drama of the record breaking runs that wrote them into history Immaculately researched and featuring exclusive interviews with several Olympic champions including a new conversation with Usain Bolt The Fastest Men on Earth brings the stories of some of the greatest athletes of all time to life like never before Looking at the Stars Carrie Teresa,2019-06-01 As early as 1900 when moving picture and recording technologies began to bolster entertainment based leisure markets journalists catapulted entertainers to godlike status heralding their achievements as paragons of American self determination Not surprisingly mainstream newspapers failed to cover black entertainers whose inherent inferiority precluded them from achieving such high cultural status Yet those same celebrities came alive in the pages of black press publications written by and for members of urban black communities In Looking at the Stars Carrie Teresa explores the meaning of celebrity as expressed by black journalists writing against the backdrop of Jim Crow era segregation Teresa argues that journalists and editors working for these black centered publications rather than simply mimicking the reporting conventions of mainstream journalism instead framed celebrities as collective representations of the race who were then used to symbolize the cultural value of artistic expression influenced by the black diaspora and to promote political activism through entertainment The social conscience that many contemporary entertainers of color exhibit today arguably derives from the way black press journalists once conceptualized the symbolic role of celebrity as a tool in the fight against segregation Based on a discourse analysis of the entertainment content of the period s most widely read black press newspapers Looking at the Stars takes into account both the institutional perspectives and the discursive strategies used in the selection and framing of black celebrities in the context of Jim Crowism The Cumulative Book Index ,1999 Top 10 American Men Sprinters Ron Knapp,1999 Known as the world s fastest men champion sprinters are some of the most exciting athletes to watch The United States has been lucky to
