

SUPPER vs. DINNER

WHAT'S ON THE MENU?

Supper

- Refers to the evening meal, often in a more casual or regional context
- Example: "We're having a family supper tonight."
- More commonly used in the Southern United States and rural areas
- Can also refer to a light evening meal
- Example: "I had a simple supper of soup and bread."

Dinner

- Refers to the evening meal, often in a more formal or social context
- Example: "We're going out to dinner to celebrate our anniversary."
- More commonly used in urban areas and formal settings
- Often refers to a more substantial evening meal
- Example: "We had a fancy dinner with multiple courses."

Remember: "Supper" and "dinner" both refer to the evening meal, but "supper" is often used in a more casual or regional context, while "dinner" is often used in a more formal or social context.

Supper Time:

What's to Eat? Nathalie Cooke, 2009-09-01 How we as Canadians procure produce cook consume and think about food creates our cuisine and our nation of immigrant traditions has produced a distinctive and evolving repertoire that is neither hodgepodge nor smorgasbord Contributors who come from the diverse worlds of universities museums the media and gastronomy look at Canada's distinctive foodways from the shared perspective of the current moment Individual chapters explore food items and choices from those made by Canada's First Nations and early settlers to those made today Other contributions describe the ways in which foods enjoyed by early Canadians have found their way back onto Canadian tables in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Authors emphasize the expressive potential of food practices and food texts cookbooks are more than books to be read and used in the kitchen they are also documents that convey valuable social and historical information

Choosing Nonviolence Kevin A. Fall, Shareen Howard, Steven M. Vestal, 2014-02-03 As mental health professionals see increasing numbers of women arrested for domestic violence the need for effective resources also increases Choosing Nonviolence fills this void providing an interactive and comprehensive treatment tool If you are a group leader Choosing Nonviolence will provide materials to deepen your current group curriculum Interactive lessons and exercises cover important topics such as trust respect parenting substance abuse safety planning and achieving nonviolence Each chapter contains stories from actual group members to illuminate important dynamics as well as tool exercises designed to provide an opportunity for your group members to learn vital skills If you are a group member you will find this book to be an important supplement to the work you are doing in group The personal stories from women who have been in group will show you how they have stumbled and succeeded on their path to change You will get to learn from these experiences and will see how you can integrate the lessons into your own life The exercises will enhance your participation in group and the homework assignments will deepen your growth outside your counseling time

The Shipyard Dave Drummond, 2003-06-03 Senator Ted Kennedy said My father worked here The Fore River Shipyard will once again be a symbol of our leadership And I will do all I can to insure that this leadership continues to thrive The shipbuilding industry has been struggling in this country as a whole Employment has dropped to a 40 year low American built ships carry less than one percent of world trade That is unacceptable Senator John McCain said We have an obligation to protect the taxpayers dollars by ensuring that this is a viable project It is my desire that the Quincy shipyard into which the state of Massachusetts and the city of Quincy have invested significant resources will be a successful venture President Clinton said about shipbuilding and the Quincy yard in particular Shipbuilding is one of the keys to America's national defense and helping our shipbuilders succeed commercially is an important goal of defense conversion This administration is committed to preserving highly skilled American jobs and we believe that American shipbuilding can compete and win in world markets What happened SHIPBUILDING USED TO BE ONE OF THE TOP FIVE INDUSTRIES IN THE U S A
