Java and Modern Europe Ann Kumar, 2013-10-11 This book presents a case study of Europe s impact on an old and distinctive non European civilisation Part One deals with the elements in Europe s strength technological political and intellectual It also uses Wallerstein s world systems perspective to give an economic dimension to this picture of the new world of Europe and then looks at the important question of the changing place of the Dutch in the new economic order from the seventeenth to the eighteenth century This is followed by a brief account of the history of the Dutch East India Company in Java and its political effects Part Two deals with the nature of the Javanese ancien regime both in court and in provincial circles with a focus on society and civilisation rather than those staples of Javanese historiography to date political events and economic statistics Part Three deals with the overall pattern set by the VOC s changing economic imperatives and with the impact of the successive tides of capitalism on three regional societies of Java Part Four deals with intellectual shifts that took place in this period and argues that these shifts were less conservative than the socio economic ones described in Part Three and though more fragile and vulnerable were crucial for the future The conclusion attempts to show the significance of these developments for modern Indonesia and the way in which some of the dynamics begun in this period are being played out in the contemporary world

Literature of Java Theodore G.Th. Pigeaud, 2024-12-23 Genesis and Nemesis of the First Dutch Colonial Empire in Asia and South Africa, 1596-1811 Gerrit Knaap, 2022-12-28 Based upon a sweeping command of Dutch East India Company VOC primary sources Knaap s manuscript offers a thought provoking thematic examination and chronological survey of the Dutch Republic s overseas and colonial expansion in Asia and South Africa mainly through the VOC and its successors the Batavian Republic the Kingdom of Holland and Franco Dutch Java over a period of more than two centuries 1596 1811 It elucidates and deals with several conceptual and theoretical issues that are intrinsically important and germane to a polity s definition of and how it chooses to execute the process of expansion overseas in the early modern period One of this work s major arguments and contributions is its advocacy that the Dutch VOC s expansion in Asia was an imperial project and must be seen as an act of empire or at the very minimum the attempt to construct one via the innovative utilization of a highly organized and dynamic commercial institution with significant political and diplomatic power and naval and military resources The Spell of Power H.G.C. Schulte Nordholt, 2010-01-01 Note This title was out of print Re issued in its original form in 2010 The first comprehensive history of Balinese politics from the middle of the 17th century till the end of Dutch colonial rule in 1942 Based on extensive research in colonial archives in the Netherlands and Indonesia a variety of Balinese historical narratives interviews with former colonial officials as well as many Balinese and fieldwork data concerning temples rituals and oral histories Schulte Nordholt traces Balinese history by means of a collective biography of the Mengwi dynasty

describing the rise to power the formation and expansion of a negara the subsequent crises and its fall in 1891 Between 1906 and 1942 Bali became part of the Dutch colonial state and experienced bureaucratic rule and processes that resulted in a traditionalization of Balinese kingship and culture The story of the Mengwi dynasty under colonial rule ended in a conflict between two factions This conflict had an unexpected but devastating outcome Proceedings of the 5th International Conference on Humanities and Social Science (ICHSS 2024) Evania Yafie, Primasa Minerva Nagari, Sri Handayani, Sinta Yuni Susilawati, Andy Prasetyo Wati, Cinde Ririh Windayu, Riskiyana Prihatiningsih, 2025-01-20 This is an open access book This conference endeavours to engage with the dynamics of marginalisation processes and their implications for diverse marginalized groups within the complex socio cultural historical and political landscape of Southeast Asia Utilizing a multidisciplinary approach this research encompasses insights from sociology anthropology political science and economics to unravel the layered dynamics of exclusion and the myriad factors contributing to the marginalization of specific communities in the region A critical aspect of this meeting is the exploration of historical legacies examining how the colonial past has influenced contemporary patterns of marginalization The research delves into the socio economic disparities cultural diversity and political structures that underpin the marginalization of certain groups By adopting an intersectional lens the study scrutinizes the interplay of factors such as ethnicity gender religion and socio economic status recognizing the interconnectedness of these dimensions in shaping the experiences of marginalization Furthermore it also examines the repercussions of marginalization on affected communities analyzing the barriers they encounter in accessing fundamental rights such as education healthcare employment and political participation Special attention is given to the resilience and resistance strategies employed by marginalized groups illustrating their agency in navigating and challenging systemic exclusion The conference hopefully incorporates in depth case studies from various countries within Southeast Asia to capture the regional nuances of marginalization processes By adopting a comparative approach the research identifies both commonalities and unique challenges faced by marginalized groups across national borders contributing to a nuanced understanding of regional dynamics This conference not only documents and analyzes the complexities of marginalization within Southeast Asia but also strives to provide actionable insights By shedding light on the challenges faced by marginalized groups the research aims to inform policy interventions and social initiatives that can address and mitigate the adverse effects of systemic exclusion Through this lens the study contributes to ongoing discussions on social justice equity and inclusive development in the Southeast Asian context fostering a deeper understanding of these issues for the benefit of both academic discourse and practical implementation
