The Gathering of Reason John Sallis, 2005-05-12 This second edition of the author's classic study of Kant's First Critique includes a new preface and extensive afterword

Philosophy and the Vision of Language Paul Livingston, 2008-06-15 Philosophy and the Vision of Language is a philosophical interpretation of the recourse to language in analytic philosophy over the twentieth century examining the enduring significance of the linguistic turn that inaugurated the analytic tradition and still determines many of its characteristic methods and problems

The Path of Archaic Thinking Kenneth Maly, 1995-03-02 This is the first anthology of commentary on Sallis that shows what is genuinely unique in his thought the transformative relation of reason and imagination in thinking after Heidegger

Delimitations John Sallis, 2022-05-24 Since Hegel philosophers have declared repeatedly that metaphysics is at an end a pronouncement that has sparked much contemporary philosophical debate What exactly does the end or closure of metaphysics mean and what are the implications of this view John Sallis characterizes the end of metaphysics as a limit or horizon both enclosing metaphysical thought and opening the field of thinking beyond it He elaborates five areas in which the boundaries of thinking are extended imagination as an opening power the radicalizing of phenomenology's injunction to attend to the things themselves Heidegger's shift of thinking toward an opening or clearing archaic closure through a return to Plato and Heraclitus and the nonidentity that takes place in the act of delimitation This last question is developed in relation to Husserl's project of a pure phenomenology to the debate between hermeneutics and deconstruction and to the secluding of ground announced in Schelling's thought

Approaches for Community Decision Making and Collective Reasoning: Knowledge Technology Support Yearwood, John, Stranieri, Andrew, 2012-06-30 This book focuses on how groups can structure their activities toward making better decisions or in developing technologies for the support of decision making in groups Provided by publisher

Technologies for Supporting Reasoning Communities and Collaborative Decision Making: Cooperative Approaches Yearwood, John, Stranieri, Andrew, 2010-10-31 The information age has enabled unprecedented levels of data to be collected and stored At the same time society and organizations have become increasingly complex Consequently decisions in many facets have become increasingly complex but have the potential to be better informed Technologies for Supporting Reasoning Communities and Collaborative Decision Making Cooperative Approaches includes chapters from diverse fields of enquiry including decision science political science argumentation knowledge management cognitive psychology and business intelligence Each chapter illustrates a perspective on group reasoning that ultimately aims to lead to a greater understanding of reasoning communities and inform technological developments

The Thought of John Sallis Bernard Freydberg, 2012-07-25 John Sallis is one of America's preeminent and most original contemporary philosophers The absence until now of a comprehensive work on Sallis has constituted a glaring oversight in philosophical scholarship The Thought of John Sallis is both an introduction for students new to his work and a valuable resource for scholars needing a systematic consideration of Sallis's wide ranging thought Sallis's work possesses an intrinsic power and originality as well as deep interpretive insight This book is a descriptive and critical journey through his thought providing an overview for readers who wish to gain a sense of its sweep along with discrete sections on particular philosophical disciplines for readers whose interests are more specific It grapples with the challenges Sallis's thought presents making them explicit and opening them up to further consideration And it attempts to locate his thought within both contemporary continental philosophy and philosophy as a whole Essential for any student of continental philosophy The Thought of John Sallis expounds on his work in a manner that increases access honors its depth and opens up unexplored possibilities for philosophy

Crises in Continental Philosophy Arleen B. Dallery, Charles E. Scott, 1990-10-02 This book punctuates the moments of crisis in continental thought from the foundational crisis of reason in Husserl's call for a rigorous science of phenomenology to the current crisis of postmodernism and its rejection of Husserl's metanarrative of history and rationality The mediating links between these moments is the centrality of the epochal history of Being the power of cultural and disciplinary practices and the dispersal of meaning in the post Husserlian and post subjective philosophies of Heidegger Foucault Derrida and others Included here are the thoughts of leading scholars who critically discuss Husserl's analysis of the crisis of Western thought and the importance of the concepts of world in Husserl's early writings The authors analyze the deprivileging of philosophy as social critique through the text of Husserl Habermas Foucault and recent feminist theory They examine the end of the epistemological and morally autonomous subject in continental thought Together these thoughts articulate multiple points or moments of crisis without cure or end

The Fidelity of Reason: A Phenomenological Metaphysics of Self, Nature and Divinity Felix Ó Murchadha, 2025-04-01 The book reveals a phenomenological metaphysics which places it at the cutting edge of contemporary work on phenomenology It addresses the crisis of world that is all around us as the meaning structures relating to self nature and divinity all seem to be undermined politically and socially within the current reality of climatic geo political and ideology turmoil In addressing these issues this text argues for a renewed understanding of reason as a fidelity to world understood as faithfulness to the being and value of self nature and divinity The account of the self engages with contemporary and older phenomenological discussions Husserl Heidegger Ricoeur Henry Zahavi as well as debates in the Philosophy of Mind the account of nature ranges over Schelling's Naturphilosophie Whitehead Philosophy of Quantum Physics and Bruno Latour the section on divinity engages with debates in Anthropology and the History of Religion as well as within the so called theological turn and theological discussions of ecology This book is directed at scholars working within the fields of phenomenology philosophy of nature philosophy of self philosophical theology philosophy of religion and metaphysics as well as upper undergraduate and graduate students in philosophy ecological studies and theology
