Reading Words into Worlds J. Clayton McReynolds, 2024-07-19 Reading Words into Worlds asks how it is that reading a novel can feel in some ways like being in a world The book explores how novels give themselves to readers in ways that mimetically resemble our phenomenological reception of given beings in reality McReynolds refers to this process as phenomenological mimesis of givenness and he draws on the phenomenological philosophy of Husserl Heidegger and Jean Luc Marion to explore how masterful novels can make reading ink marks on a page feel like seeing things feeling things and meeting even loving others McReynolds blends rigorous phenomenological study with a personable style first laying out his theory in detail and then applying that theory through close studies of his reading experiences of four British realist masterpieces Defoe's Robinson Crusoe Austen's Northanger Abbey Eliot's Middlemarch and Hardy's Jude the Obscure Ultimately this book offers a grounded phenomenology of novel reading illuminating what gives novels such power to not only thrill readers but to change them Reading the Sacred Scriptures Fiachra Long, Siobhán Dowling Long, 2017-07-14 Reading the Sacred Scriptures From Oral Tradition to Written Documents and their Reception examines how the scriptures came to be written and how their authority has been constructed and reinforced over time Highlighting the measures taken to safeguard the stability of oral accounts this book demonstrates the care of religious communities to maintain with reverence their assembled parchments and scrolls Written by leading experts in their fields this collection chronicles the development of the scriptures from oral tradition to written documents and their reception It features notable essays on the scriptures of Hinduism Judaism Buddhism Zoroastrianism Confucianism Daoism Christianity Islam Sikhism Shinto and Baha'i This book will fascinate anyone interested in the belief systems of the featured religions It offers an ideal starting point from which undergraduate and postgraduate religious studies students teachers and lecturers can explore religious traditions from their historical beginnings "The" Bible for Home Reading: To the second visit of Nehemiah to Jerusalem. 1909 Claude Goldsmid Montefiore, 1909
