The Glasgow Tenement A Way Of Life:

The Glasgow Tenement Frank Worsdall, 1989 The Glasgow Tenement Frank Worsdall, 1991 Home and Community Sandra Costa Santos, Nadia Bertolino, Stephen Hicks, Camilla Lewis, Vanessa May, 2018-04-19 Examining the relationships between architecture home and community in the Claremont Court housing scheme in Edinburgh Home and Community provides a novel perspective on the enabling potential of architecture that encompasses physical spatial relational and temporal phenomena Based on the AHRC funded project Place and Belonging the chapters draw on innovative spatial layouts amid Scottish policymakers concerns of social change in the 1960s to develop theoretical understandings between architecture home and community By approaching the discourse on home and by positioning the home at the confluence of a network of sociocultural identities bound by spatial awareness and design the writers draw on sociological interpretations of cultural negotiation as well as theoretical underpinnings in architectural design In so doing they suggest a reinterpretation of the facilitating role of architecture as sensitive to physical and socio cultural reconstruction Drawn from interviews with residents architectural surveys contextual mapping and other visual methods Home and Community explores home as a construct that is enmeshed with the architectural affordances that the housing scheme represents that is useful to both architecture and sociology students as well as practitioners and urban planners Homes in High Flats Pearl Jephcott, 2023-04-25 Originally published in 1971 Homes in High Flats was written at a time when multi storey flats were a popular solution to the world wide need for mass housing because they could be produced with speed However the social implications of domestic housing in high flats were causing local authorities in Western Europe to reconsider their efficiency Original research into this question forms the basis of this book which concentrates on Glasgow but gives attention to other examples both in Britain and abroad The text attempts to encompass all the social and practical aspects of life in high flats by studying tenants views on the physical character of the flats and estates and by examining the success of tenants associations and extra mural classes designed to develop community life Practical problems are dealt with in chapters on facilities and services families children the elderly and the case for investment in staff The authors also compare multi storey flats with other types of household and discuss the reasons for tenants movement out of the estate Perhaps the most eloquent social comment on the shortcomings of high flat life is expressed in the lyrics of the Jeely Piece Song which is included in the Appendix The Tenement Frank Worsdall, 1979 The Patina of Place Kingston Wm Heath, 2001 In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the booming textile industry turned many New England towns and villages into industrialized urban centers This rapid urbanization transformed not only the economic base but the regional identity of communities such as New Bedford as new housing forms emerged to accommodate the largely immigrant workforce of the mills "William Reid Dick, Sculptor " Dennis Wardleworth, 2017-07-05 William Reid Dick 1878 1961 was one of a generation of British sculptors air brushed out of art history by the Modernist critics of the late twentieth century This long overdue monograph

adds to the recent revival of interest in this group of forgotten sculptors by describing the life and work of arguably the leading figure of the group in unprecedented depth The facts of Reid Dick s life and his most important works are presented against a backdrop of the historical social and aesthetic changes taking place during his lifetime Dennis Wardleworth elucidates why Reid Dick s reputation plummeted so quickly and why his position in the history of British art deserves to be restored This study draws upon a wealth of previously unpublished material including over 2000 letters and press cuttings and photographs in the Tate Archive as well as letters and photographs held by Reid Dick s family It traces the sculptor s story from his birth in the Gorbals in Glasgow to his election to the Royal Academy and knighting by George V to the decline of his career and his late life connection with American millionaire and art collector Huntington Hartford The first monograph on Reid Dick since 1945 the book also includes images of over 40 of his works and a listing of over 200 works identified by the author Architectural Heritage ,1990 Architecture and Collective Life Penny Lewis,Lorens Holm,Sandra Costa Santos,2021-10-28 This book addresses the complex relationship between architecture and public life It s a study of architecture and urbanism as cultural activity that both reflects and gives shape to our social relations public institutions and political processes Written by an international range of contributors the chapters address the intersection of public life and the built environment around the themes of authority and planning the welfare state place and identity and autonomy The book covers a diverse range of material from Foucault s evolving thoughts on space to land scraping leisure centres in inter war Belgium It unpacks concepts such as community and collectivity alongside themes of self organisation and authorship Architecture and Collective Life reflects on urban and architectural practice and historical political and social change As such this book will be of great interest to students and academics in architecture and urbanism as well as practicing architects Housing Economics Geoffrey Meen,Kenneth Gibb,Chris Leishman,Christian Nygaard,2016-04-29 The world has still to emerge fully from the housing triggered Global Financial Crisis but housing crises are not new The history of housing shows long run social progress littered with major disasters nevertheless the progress is often forgotten whilst the difficulties hit the headlines Housing Economics provides a long term economic perspective on macro and urban housing issues from the Victorian era onwards A historical perspective sheds light on modern problems and the constraints on what can be achieved it concentrates on the key policy issues of housing supply affordability tenure the distribution of migrant communities mortgage markets and household mobility Local case studies are interwoven with city wide aggregate analysis Three sets of issues are addressed the underlying reasons for the initial establishment of residential neighbourhoods the processes that generate growth decline and patterns of integration segregation and the impact of historical development on current problems and the implications for policy
