The Glasswalker:

The Time Engine Sean McMullen, 2025-09-23 Swords sorcery and time travel are a strange and dangerous mix. Wayfarer Inspector Danolarian saw his world's future and did not approve. The inspector knew about time travel because he had once met his future self. What he did not know was that he would be abducted into the future and wind up on the run with a constable who had shape shifted into a cat. Danolarian would also find himself marooned in the ancient past where he would have to recover his time engine from five thousand naked psychopathic horsemen. A faulty repair plunges him another three million years back in time to a world of strange beautiful people living idyllic lives in splendid castles. But things are not always as they seem. After being attacked he learns from his unlikely rescuer that time travel is not entirely real. A furious Danolarian returns to his own time planning revenge against the time engine's true builders. When Steph is taken hostage the case blows up, no one is who they seem and soon Walker must take steps that will betray The Agency in order to do what's right for the nation. In a high stakes game where the winner takes all he must succeed. But at what cost? Then Walker learns the Russians are there to buy something that was stolen from them during the Russian war in Afghanistan. Walker knows if he doesn't succeed it's not only Steph and him that will suffer failure will result in an epic act of global terrorism. As Katrina comes to town to forever change a city and a country it's clear to Walker that his life as a spy has the potential to shape global events.
