Go Ahead Boys and the Racing Motorboat - Kay Ross Kay, 2009-11-28 A passage from the book Every normal boy loves a motor boat but words fail to express his enthusiasm when that boat is also a racer Behind the events recorded in this story are certain facts so that the tale is largely true The author will be glad if the account of life in the open the adventures and fortunes good or ill the contests and exciting experiences interest his readers even partly as much as they did the boys who shared in the actual occurrences I have tried to write a story filled with action but devoid of sensationalism and false representations If my boy friends enjoy the company of the Go Ahead boys I shall feel repaid for my labor Here we go We re off Look quick or we ll be out of your sight The long low motor boat glided smoothly out from the dock to which it had been made fast Behind it the water boiled as if it had been stirred by some invisible furnace The graceful lines of the boat its manifest power and speed formed a fitting complement to the bright sunshine and clear air which rested over the waters of the Hudson River On the dock which the Black Growler was leaving so rapidly behind her were assembled various members of the families represented by the four boys on board the motor boat Younger brothers and sisters two uncles several aunts not to mention the various fathers and mothers united in a final word of farewell
