The Islamic Jesus The Portrait Of Jesus In Islamic Literature And Tradition:

The Islamic Jesus Daniel Deleanu, 2002-06-24 The religion founded by Mohammad gives primacy to the patriarchs Abraham Isaac Jacob and Moses and although it may be a surprise to many Christians considers Jesus one of the prominent religious figures of Islam The Islamic Jesus is a book for all those who are interested in Christology in which Daniel Deleanu brings together both canonical and traditional Islamic texts adding a new facet to the image of Jesus in this often misunderstood religion Deleanu shows that there are substantial discrepancies between the canonical and the apocryphal portraits of Jesus in Islam Alongside the authoritative Koranic stories of Jesus this anthology presents traditional accounts from the Hadith and other less known sources whom Daniel Deleanu has collected and co translated to produce a genuine Islamic gospel

The Gospels in Islamic Context Georgina L. Jardim, Ida Glaser, Shirin Shafaie, 2025-09-30 Bringing together scholars from across the world this publication shows Christians and Muslims individually or together reading the canonical Gospels of the New Testament in conversation with Islamic texts and contexts In the discovery of meaning between text context and praxis this volume asks what are the texts doing in contexts as far flung as Indonesia the Hijaz of early Islam in Persian poetry of medieval times or modern Sunni interpretation in north America This second edited volume in the series Reading the Bible in Islamic Context continues the pioneering venture in contextual and intertextual reading It shows the richness of cooperative scholarship that results from reading the New Testament in Islamic context and exploring how the Gospel is understood in various religious traditions The Gospels in Islamic Context will be of interest to scholars students and practitioners encouraging them to explore new methods for taking into account intertextual factors as well as the history of Muslim Christian relations that arises from them It is a venture in which Muslims and Christians travel side by side and in conversation with each other although with significantly different perspectives and often different agendas

The Logoarchetype Daniel Deleanu, 2003-03-23 Daniel Deleanu s new book continues the logosophistic investigation started in Principles of Logosophism The Logoarchetype is written in the same logosophistic English an original metalanguage which makes English foreign to itself while returning to its unconscious archetypal roots The author links C G Jung s notion of archetype with the archaic concept of Logos as it appears in Plato Zeno Philo of Alexandria The Gospel of John the philosophic work of the Romanian poets Mihai Eminescu and Lucian Blaga and in all the major religions from the primitive to the modern ones Deleanu's original concept of logoarchetype searches out hidden etymologies, lost meanings and unconscious senses of being. Daniel Deleanu breaks all the boundaries of human knowledge with this extremely innovative scholarly system called logosophism, whose most important achievement is the discovery of the logoarchetype.

In the Footsteps of Saint Paul Edward Stourton, 2023-11-07 A layman reflects on the life and legacy of the influential apostle as he retraces Paul's footsteps through the old Roman Empire in this biography. Regarded by many as the founder of organized Christianity, Saint Paul the Apostle is a contradictory figure. Before his conversion to Christianity, Paul persecuted Christians, and it is believed he even enthusiastically attended Saint Stephen's stoning. After his conversion, he began his ministry traveling the Roman Empire and writing famous letters that are some of the earliest Christian documents. But who was he really? In this book, British radio presenter and journalist Edward Stourton recounts his own journey to real sites from St Paul's life. He begins with Paul's birthplace of Tarsus and continues all the way to Paul's martyrdom in Rome, more than sixty years later. With detailed research, Stourton contemplates the apostle's experiences, education and background, as well as his relevance to contemporary political and social issues. Ultimately, he transforms St Paul from an elusive New Testament figure into a flesh and blood man with a passion for his beliefs.

Christian Encounters with Iran Sasan Tavassoli, 2011-04-30 The interface between the current Shi'ite landscape and Christian thinking is of the greatest significance for the shifting political and religious dynamics of the Middle East. Sasan Tavassoli here examines Iranian Shi'ite thinkers' encounters with Christian thought since the Islamic revolution of 1979 and provides insight into the cultural and intellectual climate surrounding Christian-Muslim dialogue in contemporary Iran. The literature on Christianity in Iran reveals a wide range of approaches and attitudes, and Tavassoli demonstrates that traditional polemics are giving way to a more descriptive and subjective understanding of Christian thought. He also studies Muslim-Christian dialogue and research conducted and supported by governmental as well as non-governmental organizations and offers a close examination with interviews of the work of three prominent liberal religious intellectuals: Abdol Karim Soroush, Mostafa Malekian and Mojtaba Shabestari. Placing contemporary Shi'ite thought in the broad historical context of pre and post-revolution Iran, Tavassoli relates concrete religious, cultural and socio-political realities to the themes and orientations in the latest phase of the Shi'i-Islam-Christianity encounter and offers fresh insight into the dynamism of contemporary Islam and the religious complexities of the Muslim world.
