The Jedburghs The Secret History Of The Allied Special Forces France 1944

Matthew T. Bolland

The Jedburghs The Secret History Of The Allied Special Forces France 1944:

The Jedburghs Will Irwin, 2005-10-10 The Jedburghs were a pioneering Special Forces unit uniquely made up of American British and French volunteers They parachuted deep behind the German lines to assist with the recapture of France in 1944 Dropped in teams of three the Jeds would rally local opposition to the Germans and conduct guerrilla warfare sabotage ambush and intelligence gathering ahead of the advancing Allied armies In doing so they contributed to the Allied breakout from the Normandy bridgehead and to the rapid advance to the German border Above all the Jedburgh teams were trained to survive The three man teams could not be certain that their communications with London would survive the drop or that any meaningful resupply would be possible They had to operate alone against extraordinary odds in a country almost entirely occupied by a hostile force prepared to survive pitched battles with the Wehrmacht and relentless manhunts by the Gestapo Nor did they know how long they would have to wait before the Allied front line reached them It was an enormous test of endurance cunning and strength of will The Jedburghs tells the story of these heroic young men and offers a new perspective on the D Day landings Will Irwin who served in the modern U S Army Special Forces himself has selected seven of the Jedburgh teams and told their stories as gripping personal narratives He has gathered archival documents diaries and correspondence and interviewed veterans and family members in order to present a full portrait of their crucial role recognized by Churchill and Eisenhower in the struggle to liberate Europe It is narrative history at its most compelling a vivid drama of the battle for France from deep behind enemy lines BOOK JACKET

The Jedburghs Will Irwin, 2006-10-10 The story of the Special Forces in World War II has never fully been told before Information about them began to be declassified only in the 1980s Known as the Jedburghs these Special Forces were selected from members of the British American and Free French armies to be dropped in teams of three deep behind German lines There in preparation for D Day they carried out what we now know as unconventional warfare supporting the French Resistance in guerrilla attacks supply route disruption and the harassment and obstruction of German reinforcements Always they operated against extraordinary odds They had to be prepared to survive pitched battles with German troops and Gestapo manhunts for weeks and months while awaiting the arrival of Allied ground forces They were in short heroes The Jedburghs finally tells their story and offers a new perspective on D Day itself Will Irwin has selected seven of the Jedburgh teams and told their stories as gripping personal narratives He has gathered archival documents diaries and correspondence and interviewed Jed veterans and family members in order to present this portrait of their crucial role a role recognized by Churchill and Eisenhower in the struggle to liberate Europe in 1944 45 This is narrative history at its most compelling a vivid drama of the battle for France from deep behind enemy lines

The Jedburghs Will Lt. Col. Ret. Irwin, 2005 The Riviera at War George G. Kundahl, 2017-05-30 During World War II three distinct forces opposed the Allies Germany Italy and Japan Few areas of the world experienced domination by more than a single one of these but southeastern France the region popularly known as the Riviera or Cote d

Azur was one Not only did inhabitants suffer through Italian Fascism and German Nazism but also under a third hardship at times even more oppressive the rule of Vichy France Following a nine month prelude the reality of World War II burst onto the Riviera in June 1940 when the region had to defend itself against the Italian army and ended in April 1945 with a battle against German and Italian forces in April 1945 a period longer than any other part of France In this book George G Kundahl tells for the first time the full story of World War II on the French Riviera Featuring previously unseen sources and photographs this will be essential reading for anyone interested in wartime France A Most Ungentlemanly Way of War Bernd Horn,2016-01-30 An examination of the SOE its accomplishments and the Canadian connection to the organization During the Second World War British Prime Minister Winston Churchill created the Special Operations Executive SOE to conduct acts of sabotage and subversion and raise secret armies of partisans in German occupied Europe With the directive to set Europe ablaze the SOE undertook a dangerous game of cat and mouse with the Nazi Gestapo An agent s failure could result in indescribable torture dispatch to a concentration camp and often a death sentence While the SOE s contribution to the Allied war effort is still debated and many of its files remain classified it was a unique wartime creation that reflected innovation adventure and a fanatical devotion on the part of its personnel to the Allied cause The SOE has an important Canadian connection Canadians were among its operatives and agents behind enemy lines Camp X in Whitby Ontario was a special training school that trained agents for overseas duty and an infamous Canadian codenamed Intrepid ran SOE operations in the Americas Task Force Butler: Major Michael J. Volpe,2015-11-06 On 15 August 1944 an Allied army launched a second amphibious landing against the coast of southern France The Allies having shattered German defenses around the beachhead decided to exploit the chaos in the enemy camp On 17 August 1944 Major General MG Lucian K Truscott Jr with no mobile organic strike force assigned to his VI Corps ordered the assembly of and attack by an ad hoc collection of units roughly equivalent to an armored brigade This provisional armored group Task Force TF Butler experienced remarkable success despite a dearth of planning no rehearsals and no history of working together in either training or combat This case study examines the success of TF Butler from the perspectives of doctrinal development in the United States U S Army the unit s unique task organization and the leadership s employment of the unit in combat The use of ad hoc formations to meet unforeseen situations was not unique to World War II American units currently serving in the Middle East are regularly assigned units they have no habitual relations with to conduct combat operations This case study may prove useful in preparing contemporary military leaders for the types of challenges they will face conducting operations in the contemporary operational environment Code Name Badass Heather Demetrios,2022-09-06 To say Virginia Dindy Hall was ambitious would be an understatement She was that girl at your high school who makes everyone else look like a slacker no matter how hard they re working But how many of them can say they ve been on Nazi Germany s Most Wanted list At a time when most women were expected to become wives and mothers Virginia craved adventure And with the world gearing up for a second World War this fearless woman knew that she had to find a way to get involved When the State Department proved to be a sexist boys club that wouldn't allow her in she went to England to join their Special Operations unit which was more than happy to hire this talented brilliant woman Even after a terrible accident left her needing a wooden leg she remained undeterred Soon Virginia became an essential part of the Allied mission and the French Resistance earning the dangerous honor of being named the most dangerous of all Allied spies by the Gestapo Provided by publisher Among the Firsts: Lieutenant Colonel Gerhard L. Bolland's Unconventional War Matthew T. Bolland, 2022-05-19 In his own words the war of the doubly pioneering Lt Col Gerhard L Bolland 82nd Airborne paratrooper on D Day and senior OSS field operative on Operation Rype Unconventional warfare tactics can have a considerable effect on the outcome of any war During World War II the United States government developed and employed two new methods of fighting The first was the development of paratroop units as they were first called The second was the formation of a covert and sabotage operations branch called the Office of Strategic Services OSS Lt Colonel Bolland was involved in both of these firsts During the D Day invasion he parachuted behind enemy lines jumping out of the 82nd Airborne lead aircraft with General James Gavin After fighting with the 507th Parachute Infantry Regiment for thirty three days straight he returned to England and became involved with the OSS Scandinavian Section He served as Field Commander for their Operation code named Rype This was the only American military undertaking albeit covert in Norway during the entire course of the war As a young boy growing up in rural western Minnesota Bolland got his military start with the Minnesota National Guard before being accepted to West Point solely on merit His military career lasted seventeen years Lt Colonel Bolland ended up with numerous decorations including the Norwegian Liberation Medal and Citation the Bronze Star for valor the French Fourragere of Croix de Guerre with Palms and posthumously the Congressional Gold medal awarded to the OSS Society on behalf of all former OSS members that served during the war His story reveals the struggles successes failures and ultimate victories detailing what went right and what went wrong with these new unconventional methods of fighting

Secret Operations of World War II Alexander Stilwell, 2024-12-15 Secret Operations of World War II is a fascinating account of the major special ops organisations and underground cells of both sides examining recruitment training equipment and deployment of operatives and illustrated with 120 photographs artworks and maps
