The Joe 82 Creation Poems Rochelle Owens, 1974 Slips of the Mind Jennifer Soong, 2025-04-07 An audacious account of what happens when forgetting becomes a way of writing and writing becomes a way of forgetting In Slips of the Mind poet and critic Jennifer Soong turns away from forgetting's long standing associations with suppression privation and error to argue that the absence or failure of memory has often functioned as a generative creative principle Exploring forgetting not as the mere rejection of a literary past or a form of negative poetics Soong puts to the test its very aesthetic meaning What new structures forms of desires styles and long and short feelings do lapses in time allow What is oblivion's relationship to composition And how does the twentieth century poet come to figure as the quintessential embodiment of such questions Soong uncovers forgetting's influence on Gertrude Stein Lyn Hejinian Tan Lin Harryette Mullen Lissa Wolsak and New York School poets John Ashbery James Schuyler Bernadette Mayer and Ted Berrigan among others She reveals that forgetting's shapeshifting produces differences in poetic genre interest and degrees of intentionality and that such malleability is part of forgetting's nature Most provocatively Soong shows how losing track of things leaving them behind or finding them already gone resists overdetermination and causality in the name of surprise as poets leverage forgetting in order to replace identity with style Slips of the Mind is the kind of literary criticism that will reward all readers of modern and contemporary poetry International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets Beat Drama Deborah Geis, 2016-07-28 Readers and acolytes of the vital early 1950s mid 1960s writers known as the Beat Generation tend to be familiar with the prose and poetry by the seminal authors of this period Jack Kerouac Gregory Corso Lawrence Ferlinghetti Diane Di Prima and many others Yet all of these authors as well as other less well known Beat figures also wrote plays and these together with their countercultural approaches to what could or should happen in the theatre shaped the dramatic experiments of the playwrights who came after them from Sam Shepard to Maria Irene Fornes to the many vanguard performance artists of the seventies This volume the first of its kind gathers essays about the exciting work in drama and performance by and about the Beat Generation ranging from the well known Beat figures such as Kerouac Ginsberg and Burroughs to the Afro Beats LeRoi Jones Amiri Baraka Bob Kaufman and others It offers original studies of the women Beats Di Prima Bunny Lang as well as groups like the Living Theater who in this era first challenged the literal and physical boundaries of the performance space itself study to scrutinize the Russian American poet Joseph Brodsky's self translation practices during the period of his exile to the USA in 1972-1996. The book draws on a large amount of previously unpublished archival material including the poet's manuscripts in Russian and English, draft translations, notes, comments in the margins, and correspondence with his translators, editors, and friends. Rulyova's approach to the study of self translation is informed by the social turn in translation studies. She focuses on the process of text production, the agents and institutions involved, translation practices, and the role played by translators and publishers in the production of the text.
