Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e.g. the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc. can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

Nin Clara Oropeza, 2018-08-06 Ana's Nin: A Myth of Her Own traces Nin's literary craft by following the intimacy of self exploration and poetic expression attained in the details of the quotidian transfigured into fiction. By digging into the mythic tropes that permeate both her literary diaries and fiction, this book demonstrates that Nin constructed a mythic method of her own, revealing the extensive possibilities of an opulent feminine psyche. Clara Oropeza demonstrates that the literary diary for Nin is a genre that, with its traces of trickster archetype among others, reveals a mercurial yet particular understanding of an embodied and at times mystical experience of a writer. The cogent analysis of Nin's fiction alongside the posthumously published unexpurgated diaries, within the backdrop of emerging psychological theories, further illuminates Nin's contributions as an experimental and important modernist writer whose daring and poetic voice has not been fully appreciated. By extending research on diary writing and anchoring Nin's literary style within modernist traditions, this book contributes to the redefinition of what literary modernism was comprised of, who participated, and how it was defined. Ana's Nin: A Myth of Her Own is unique in its interdisciplinary expansion of literature, literary theory, mythological studies, and depth psychology. By considering the ecocritical aspects of Nin's writing, this book forges a new paradigm for not only Nin's work but for critical discussions of self-life writing as a valid epistemological and aesthetic form. This impressive work will be of great interest to academics and students of Jungian and post-Jungian studies, literary studies, cultural studies, mythological studies, and women's studies.

The Early Diary of Anaïs Nin, 1923-1927 Anaïs Nin, 2014-09-02 A revealing look at the life of this extraordinary and unconventional writer during the mid 1920s. The New York Times Book Review: In this volume of her earlier series of personal diaries, Anaïs Nin tells how she exorcised the obsession that threatened her marriage and nearly drove her to suicide. Through sheer nerve, confidence, and will, Nin made of the everyday something magical. This was a gift, indeed, and it's a fascinating process to witness. The Christian Science Monitor: With an editor's note by Rupert Pole and a preface by Joaquin Nin Culmell.

Voice of Her Own Marlene A. Schiwy, 1996-05-27 As writers such as Virginia Woolf, Audre Lorde, and Anaïs Nin recognized, keeping a journal is a powerful tool of creative expression and self-healing. In A Voice of Her Own, a companion for both new and longtime diarists, Marlene Schiwy shows that journal writing is the ideal way to find one's individual voice, an opportunity for women to explore feelings, intuitions, perceptions, and ideas often suppressed in our society, and to record the truths of their own experience. Schiwy invites readers to share the journeys other women have made toward selfhood and encourages them to begin a journey of their own. She weaves together passages from published and unpublished journals, from works of literature, psychology, and women's studies, with her personal insights. A Voice of Her Own is a treasure chest of inspiration for every woman seeking deeper self-awareness and new outlets for creativity.

The Diary of Anaïs Nin Anaïs Nin, Gunther Stuhlmann, 1969 Nin continues her debate on the use of drugs versus the artist's imagination; portrays many famous people in the arts; and recounts her visits to Sweden, the Brussels World's Fair, Paris, and Venice. Nin looks at life, love, and art with a blend of gentility and acuity that is rare in contemporary writing. John Barkham
