Anderson, 1997-01-01 Women's Lives Women's Times reflects the growing interest in life writing as a basis for both feminist theorizing and women centered education It discusses the many ways in which the study of autobiography can contribute to the theory practice and politics of women's studies as curriculum and to feminist theory more generally This volume is concerned with the application of theory to text particularly with the assumptions and discourses of postmodernism but also in exploring how general theories of the subject do not always fit comfortably with the specifics of autobiographical writing It also recognizes the challenge women's autobiography offers to theory taking us in its complex weave of the personal the political and the theoretical beyond the usual generic and disciplinary boundaries U.S. Women in Struggle Claire Goldberg Moses, Heidi I. Mary Antin's Promised Land from the Curse of Ham to Teju Cole's They attest to Sollors' deep historical sensibilities, his attention to textual detail and his awareness of the costs and opportunities of both cosmopolitan ideals and particularist commitments whilst addressing a central question: why does modernisation take the form of ethnicisation in many places around the globe? The collected essays are complemented by a detailed introduction by Daniel G. Williams which foregrounds some of the key emphases and tensions in Sollors' writings.

Telling Incest Janice L. Doane, Devon L. Hodges, 2001. An exploration of how specific historical contexts, narrative conventions and cultural politics shape the ways that stories of incest are told and heard.

Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04. First published in 2001. This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing. As this term suggests, the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper but also letters, diaries, memoirs, family histories, case histories and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured. It includes entries on genres and subgenres, national and regional traditions from around the world and important autobiographical writers as well as articles on related areas such as oral history, anthropology, testimonies and the representation of life stories in non-verbal art forms.

Conversations with Natasha Trethewey Joan Wylie Hall, 2013-08-28. United States Poet Laureate Natasha Trethewey, born 1966, describes her mode as elegiac. Although the loss of her murdered mother informs each book, Trethewey's range of forms and subjects is wide. In compact sonnets, elegant villanelles, ballad stanzas and free verse, she creates monuments to mixed-race children of colonial Mexico, African American soldiers from the Civil War, a beautiful prostitute in 1910 New Orleans and domestic workers from the twentieth-century North and South. Because her white father and her black mother could not marry legally in Mississippi, Trethewey says she was given her subject matter as the daughter of miscegenation. A sense of psychological exile is evident from her first collection Domestic Work (2000) to the recent Thrall (2012). Biracial people of the Americas are a major focus of her poetry, and her prose book Beyond Katrina a meditation on family, community and the natural environment of the Mississippi Gulf Coast. The interviews featured within Conversations with Natasha Trethewey provide intriguing artistic and biographical insights into her work. The Pulitzer Prize-winning poet cites diverse influences from Anne Frank to Seamus Heaney. She emotionally acknowledges Rita Dove's large impact and she boldly positions herself in the southern literary tradition of Faulkner and Robert Penn Warren. Commenting on Pastoral South and other poems, Trethewey guides readers to deeper perception and empathy.
