The Manger and the Throne Martin A. Recio, 2001-10 Against All Odds After experiencing a horrific event that involved the losing of all my senses I was once again able to regain my self by the use of daily prayer learning to allow one foot to follow another and letting go of control issues Thus by the grace of God I achieved Success After Insanity a poignant true story that covers issues such as isolation poverty suicide domestic violence sexual dysfunction alcoholism and mental illness Also the major role religion plays in mental illness The author believes the root of all mental illnesses rarely stems from genetics but by the simple disconnection of the true self to the universal flow In these times with staggering cases of divorce single parenting sexual physical and emotional abuse and homeless individuals it leaves the soul wandering aimlessly in search for truth an endless search for unity Learn about the Individual Universal Consciousness and the Family Pool of Consciousness Discover ways of reuniting with the society we are all responsible for and seek to learn of the higher truth we have all been blessed with just because we are God s Beings Begin enjoying the rights to your Divinity it s Time Namaste

A Slow Walk During Christmas and Easter Edward B. Allen, 2020-02-11. Christmas celebrates the birth of Jesus Christ; Easter celebrates the resurrection of Jesus. This book is a collection of devotional meditations slowly walking through the stories of the birth, death, and resurrection of Jesus. The stories in the four Gospels are presented as a unified chronological paraphrase of the Scriptures. Each devotional meditation focuses on a Bible character and how that character illustrates an aspect of the Christian life today. Part I is suitable for daily use during Advent, and Part II is suitable for Lent. Features of A Slow Walk during Christmas and Easter: Devotional Meditations for Advent and Lent include a short prayer with each meditation, cross-references to Scriptures, and cultural information in notes, and an index of Scripture references and meditation titles. The Christian Standard Bible (CSB) is the primary translation.

Following Jesus in the Holy Land Stephen Need, 2019-09-01. Reflecting on the key locations of Jesus' life and ministry, this book invites Holy Land visitors and armchair pilgrims to reflect on Christian discipleship through Advent and Lent.

Jesus Changes Everything! Deanna Atkinson, 2022-07-28. Sometimes stories as familiar as the Christmas and Easter stories become just that: stories. We have heard them so many times that we don't really hear them anymore. Through story poems, most of which are told from the perspectives of those who lived these stories, Jesus Changes Everything invites you to relive these history-changing events. Be amazed with Mary as she hears Gabriel's incredible news and accepts God's plan for her life. Respect Joseph as he reacts to shocking news with honor and obedience. Travel to Bethlehem and witness the birth of a tiny baby in a humble manger. Join the shepherds, the first to visit the Savior, and worship the Lord. Marvel with Simeon who recognizes the Messiah as he lovingly holds Him in his arms. Oh, Christmas changed everything. Then fast forward to Jesus' last days on Earth. Travel with Him into Jerusalem and watch Him teach and overturn the Temple tables. Agonize with Him in the garden of Gethsemane, observe Him then as He rises resolutely to meet His captors. Watch if you can the injustice of His trials and hear with horror His sentence: crucifixion. Behold His suffering, death, and burial. Then rejoice with His resurrection. Celebrate His victory, our victory over sin and death. Yes, Easter changed everything. Once we meet Jesus, our lives will never be the same. He became one of us, loved us, taught us, and redeemed us. Thank God, Jesus Changes Everything.
