The Manpower Services Commission In Scotland Edinburgh Education And Society:

The Manpower Services Commission in Scotland Alice Brown, John Fairley, 1989 Changing Vocational Education and Training Ian Finlay, Stuart Niven, Stephanie Young, 2005-09-30 Vocational Education and Training VET has been the focus of change for some years Many nations have developed VET systems with long term strategies that benefit their economies including co ordinating economic industrial and VET policies and achieving consensus among major stakeholders in the system Changing Vocational Education and Training focuses on how the principles of stakeholding consensus participation and democracy can be applied to policy formulation and implementation Case studies presented and discussed by experts from eight nations provide sound examples of practical strategies which have been successfully implemented Changing Vocational Education and Training is a timely collection of the latest theory research and practice in VET policy It is essential reading for policy makers practitioners and academics Education and Society L. Bondi, M. H. Matthews, 2017-04-28 This book first published in 1988 examines the most contentious issues in contemporary education The political social educational and geographical impact of changes in the provision of educational services are discussed and illustrated through a wide range of case studies Issues are examined from a number of different perspectives amongst them those of the parent the educational administrator and the organisational theorist with the result that the book is able to evaluate which changes are most consistent with the requirements of each group This book will be of interest to students of sociology and education Resources in Education , 1997 Politics and Society in Scotland Alice Brown, David McCrone, Lindsay Paterson, 1998-11-11 Substantially revised and rewritten in the light of the 1997 General Election and Devolution referendum the 2nd edition of this widely used text provides an up to date assessment of Scottish politics under Blair and the likely impact of the new Scottish Parliament The book focuses in particular on Scotland s constitutional position within the UK its system of policy making the nature of the Scottish economy and the changing patterns of party electoral and grass roots politics An important feature is its focus throughout on the relationship between culture identity and ethnicity and that between politics and civil society as it has developed since the Act of Union in 1707 Reconstructions of Secondary Education John Gray, Andrew McPherson, David Raffe, 2012-05-16 British secondary education has changed in major ways since 1945 This book examines some consequences and implications of both change and stability drawing on a unique series of national surveys of school leavers in Scotland The authors provide an empirical and theoretical account of central problems of contemporary schooling Their analysis covers certification curriculum and selection the effects of educational expansion trends in educational inequality the impact of comprehensive reorganisation truancy and alienation from schooling the explanation of differences in performance between schools and the implications for the public accountability of schools From these analyses the authors develop a critique of the theory of the education system that underpinned expansion They examine this theory s logical and empirical status as myth and elaborate how the political system and social science might jointly overcome some of the methodological difficulties that beset social and educational research

Teacher Agency Mark Priestley, Gert Biesta, Sarah Robinson, 2015-10-22 Recent worldwide education policy has reinvented teachers as agents of change and professional developers of the school curriculum Academic literature has analyzed changes in how teacher professionalism is conceived in policy and in practice but Teacher Agency provides a fresh perspective on this issue drawing upon an ecological theory of agency Using this model for understanding agency Mark Priestley Gert Biesta and Sarah Robinson explore empirical findings from the Teacher Agency and Curriculum Change project funded by the UK based Economic and Social Research Council ESRC Drawing together this research with the authors international experiences and perspectives Teacher Agency addresses theoretical and practical issues of international significance The authors illustrate how teacher agency should be understood not only in terms of individual capacity of teachers but also in respect of the cultures and structures of schooling

Learning Opportunities for Adults Trevor Corner, 2012-10-12 Argues for the financial backing from governments and industry for adult education and will help adult and community educators draw comparisons between their own work and that of their colleagues in other developed countries World Yearbook of Education 1979 Tom Schuler, Jacquetta Megarry, 2013-02-01 Published in the year 2005 World Yearbook of Education 1979 is a valuable contribution to the field of Major Works Change And Intervention Peter Raggatt; Lorna Unwin both of The Open University., 2013-10-28 First published in 1991 The constant changes in both vocational education and training VET policy and practice since the early 1970s have been well documented Some of these changes are a direct result of government intervention in education and training policy for example TVEI YTS and the introduction of a competency based framework for qualifications This volume brings together some key players and key policies which are part of the complex structure and presents them for public scrutiny The editors do not set out to pursue one ideological argument but rather to present a series of different perspectives which taken together reveal the massive scale of change and intervention shaping the country's VET infrastructure
