Burning Djinn of Fire Renee George,2024-03-31 In a supernatural world pulsing with magic Marigold Everlee's determination burns bright as she embarks on a perilous journey to rewrite fate and rescue her vanished ifrit lover Zev. You don't have to read the first five books Iris and Keir in the Grimoires world to enjoy Marigold and Zev's trilogy. Seven months ago goddess magic allowed me the very human Marigold Everlee to have a couple of sizzling nights with the very paranormal Zev. He was tall, dark, and smoking hot. Literally. He's an ifrit, a fire magic-wielding djinn. Spoiler alert: When the goddess magic poofed, so did Zev. Yeah, I was ghosted after he promised me he'd be back. His disappearance turned my heart to ash. But you know what? I'm middle-aged and marvelous. Baby, crying over spilled magic isn't going to change what happened to my one-sided love connection. I have new aspirations: being the best bad-ass witch possible. My new bestie is teaching me the ways of eclectic magic, and I'm throwing all my energy into the process. I've always been a little hippy-dippy, so using my crystals and herbs for spell work should come naturally to me. Right? Wrong. Just when I think I'm getting the hang of potions, a fire spell blows up in my face, leaving a cryptic message scorched into my kitchen cabinets. From Zev: "What the what? It seems Zev didn't want to disappear after all. I may be a magical mess, but no one gets away with hurting the people I love, including my stubborn, sarcastic, sexy genie. Watch out, world! This girl is on fire. Get out of the way or get burned." Murder At The Music Hall (Auguste Didier Mystery 8) Amy Myers, 2013-10-24. The eighth Auguste Didier mystery. It's 1902, and Auguste Didier finds himself reluctantly recruited for a week's work at the Old King Cole music hall in the East End. Ostensibly, there, as chef of its greasy, run-down eating house, Auguste has another role: to prevent a possible foul murder by being constant bodyguard to famous comedian Will Lamb. At first, Will's fears of being the victim of someone's murderous intentions seem unfounded. After all, he's only had a portentous dream, and he's really rather popular. But when other, more sinister omens occur, Auguste begins to sense real danger, and Will Lamb dies on stage in front of his eyes. The search is on for a killer, and it has to be someone who's had access to the props. Auguste's job is made more complicated by the fact that a national treasure has also been reported missing from Windsor Castle. And there are enough tenuous threads to indicate that the crimes must somehow be linked.

21st-Century Gothic Danel Olson, 2011. Selected by a poll of more than 180 Gothic specialists, creative writers, professors, critics, and Gothic Studies program developers at universities, the fifty-three original works discussed in 21st Century Gothic represent the most impressive Gothic novels written around the world between 2000-2010. The essays in this volume discuss the merits of these novels, highlighting the influences and key components that make them worthy of inclusion. Many of the pioneer voices of Gothic Studies, as well as other key critics of the field, have all contributed new essays to this volume, including David Punter, Jerrold Hogle, Karen F. Stein, Marie Mulvey Roberts, Mary Ellen Snodgrass, Tony Magistrale, Don D. Ammassa, Mavis Haut, Walter Rankin, James Doig, Laurence A. Rickels, Douglass H. Thomson, Sue Zlosnik, Carol Margaret Davison, Ruth Bienstock Anolik, Glennis Byron, Judith Wilt, Bernice Murphy, Darrell Schweitzer, and June Pulliam. The guide includes a preface by one of the world's leading authorities on the weird and fantastic, S. T. Joshi, sharing their knowledge of how traditional Gothic elements and tensions surface in a changed way within a contemporary novel the contributors enhance the reader's dark enjoyment, emotional involvement and appreciation of these works. These essays show not only how each of these novels are Gothic but also how they advance or change Gothicism, making the works both irresistible for readers and establishing their place in the Gothic canon.

Routledge Handbook of International Law and the Humanities Shane Chalmers, Sundhya Pahuja, 2021-05-19

This Handbook brings together 40 of the world's leading scholars and rising stars who study international law from disciplines in the humanities from history to literature, philosophy to the visual arts to showcase the distinctive contributions that this field has made to the study of international law over the past two decades. Including authors from Australia, Canada, Europe, India, South Africa, the UK and the USA, all the contributors engage the question of what is distinctive and critical about the work that has been done and that continues to be done in the field of international law and the humanities. For many of these authors, answering this question involves reflecting on the work they themselves have been contributing to this path-breaking field since its inception at the end of the twentieth century. For others, it involves offering models of the new work they are carrying out or else reflecting on the future directions of a field that has now taken its place as one of the most important sites for the study of international legal practice and theory. Each of the book's six parts foregrounds a different element or cluster of elements of international law and the humanities: from an attention to the office conduct and training of the jurist and jurisprudent (Part 1) to scholarly craft and technique (Part 2) to questions of authority and responsibility (Part 3), history and historiography (Part 4), plurality and community (Part 5) as well as the challenge of thinking and rethinking international legal concepts for our times (Part 6). Outlining new ways of imagining and doing international law at a moment in time when original critical thought and practice is more necessary than ever, this Handbook will be essential for scholars, students and practitioners in international law, international relations as well as in law and the humanities more generally.
