

2 States

1. Multiculturalism and Inter-Caste Marriage :

Chetan Bhagat's 2 States explores the complex dynamics of inter-caste marriage in India, depicting the relationship between Krish (a Punjabi from Delhi) and Ananya (a Tamilian from Chennai). The novel emphasizes cultural contrasts between North and South India, highlighting differences in language, food, and rituals.

2. Challenges of Cultural Differences

- The novel portrays stereotypical North-South clashes, with humorous moments showcasing the cultural misunderstandings that arise between Krish's Punjabi family and Ananya's Tamil family.
- Examples of cultural stereotypes: Krish's mother sees Tamilian culture as conservative, while Ananya's family views Punjabis as overly materialistic.

3. Modernization and Love Marriages

- Bhagat contrasts traditional arranged marriages with the modern concept of love marriages, where families must also accept each other for a successful union.
- Krish's and Ananya's efforts to gain family approval reflect changing societal norms in a globalized India, where young people increasingly prioritize personal choice over cultural boundaries. \(Addtext\)

The Marriage of Continents Guy Amirthanayagam, 2000-01-19      Disorientation: Muslim Identity in Contemporary Anglophone Literature E. Santesso, 2013-09-12 Focusing on British novels about the Muslim immigrant experience published after 9 11 this book examines the promise as well as the limits of British Muslim identity as a viable form of self representation and the challenges particularly for women of reconciling non Western religious identity with the secular policies of Western states      Comparative Cultural Studies and Latin America Sophia A. McClennen, Earl E. Fitz, 2004 The genesis of Comparative Cultural Studies and Latin America stems from the contributors conviction that given its vitality and excellence Latin American literature deserves a more prominent place in comparative literature publications curricula and disciplinary discussions The editors introduce the volume by first arguing that there still exists in some quarters a lingering bias against literature written in Spanish and Portuguese Secondly the authors assert that by embracing Latin American literature and culture more enthusiastically comparative literature would find itself reinvigorated placed into productive discourse with a host of issues languages literatures and cultures that have too long been paid scant academic attention Following an introduction by the editors the volume contains papers by Gene H Bell Villada on the question of canon by Gordon Brotherston and Lucia de S on the First Peoples of the Americas and their literature by Elizabeth Coonrod Mart nez on the Latin American novel of the 1920s by Rom n de la Campa on Latin American Studies by Earl E Fitz on Spanish American and Brazilian literature by Roberto Gonz lez Echevarra on Latin American and comparative literature by Sophia A McClennen on comparative literature and Latin American Studies by Alberto Moreiras on Borges by Julio Ortega on the critical debate about Latin American cultural studies by Christina Marie Tourino on Cuban Americas in New York City by Mario J Vald s on the comparative history of literary cultures in Latin America and by Lois Parkinson Zamora on comparative literature and globalization The volume also contains a bibliography of scholarship in comparative Latin American culture and literature and biographical abstracts of the contributors to the volume      English Novel Explication Peter L. Abernethy, 1976      American Book Publishing Record, 2003      Multiculturalism, Multilingualism and the Self: Literature and Culture Studies Jacek Mydla, Małgorzata Poks, Leszek Drong, 2017-07-31 This edited collection explores the conjunction of multiculturalism and the self in literature and culture studies and brings together essays by prominent researchers interested in literature and culture whose critical perspectives inform discussions of specific examples of multicultural contexts in which individuals and communities strive to maintain their identities The book is divided into two major parts the first of which comprises literary representations of multiculturalism and discussions of its impasses and impacts in fictional circumstances In turn the second part primarily focuses on culture at large and real life consequences Taken together the two complementary parts offer an illuminating and well rounded overview of representations of multiculturalism in literature and contemporary culture from a variety of critical perspectives      Multiculturalism &

Multiculturalism and the Convergence of Faith and Practical Wisdom in Modern Society Pascal, Ana-Maria, 2016-12-21 Religion is considered by many to be something of the past but it has a lasting hold in society and influences people across many cultures This integration of spirituality causes numerous impacts across various aspects of modern life Multiculturalism and the Convergence of Faith and Practical Wisdom in Modern Society is a pivotal reference source for the latest scholarly research on the cultural sociological economic and philosophical effects of religion on modern society and human behavior Featuring extensive coverage across a range of relevant perspectives and topics such as social reforms national identity and existential spirituality this publication is ideally designed for theoreticians practitioners researchers policy makers advanced level students and sociologists Multiculturalism in Contemporary German Literature, 1995 Twelve German speaking authors offer a contribution to the multicultural discourse of minority groups living in German speaking countries Booker Prize Novels, 1969-2005 Merritt Moseley, 2006 The Booker Prize renamed in 2002 to the Man Booker Prize is the most prestigious literary award given in the United Kingdom and one of the two or three most esteemed such awards in the world and confers literary recognition on novels that reflect and portray the state of culture Discusses the impact the Booker Prize had on the world of books the history of the Booker Prize the rules and judging and the various controversies that arose over awarding this prize The Spaces of Latin American Literature Juan E. De Castro, 2008-04-28 The Spaces of Latin American Literature Tradition Globalization and Cultural Production examines how Latin American writers artists and intellectuals have negotiated their relationship with Western culture from the colony to the present De Castro looks at writers and intellectual polemics that serve as markers of the region's cultural evolution Among the writers and artists studied are Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz Rubén Darío Jorge Luis Borges Caetano Veloso and Alberto Fuguet This book proposes an analysis of the region's literature rooted in its specific cultural political and economic locations Forbidden Intimacies Melanie Heath, 2023-02-21 A poignant account of everyday polygamy and what its regulation reveals about who is viewed as an Other In the past thirty years polygamy has become a flashpoint of conflict as Western governments attempt to regulate certain cultural and religious practices that challenge seemingly central principles of family and justice In Forbidden Intimacies Melanie Heath comparatively investigates the regulation of polygamy in the United States Canada France and Mayotte Drawing on a wealth of ethnographic and archival sources Heath uncovers the ways in which intimacies framed as other and offensive serve to define the very limits of Western tolerance These regulation efforts counterintuitively allow the flourishing of polygamies on the ground The case studies illustrate a continuum of justice in which some groups like white fundamentalist Mormons in the U S organize to fight against the prohibition of their families existence whereas African migrants in France face racialized discrimination in addition to rigid migration policies The matrix of legal and social contexts informed by gender race sexuality and class shapes the everyday experiences of these relationships Heath uses the term labyrinthine love to conceptualize the complex ways individuals negotiate different kinds of relationships ranging from romantic to coercive What unites these families is the secrecy in which they must operate As government intervention erodes their abilities to secure housing welfare work and even protection from abuse Heath exposes the huge variety of intimacies and the power they hold to challenge heteronormative Western ideals of love Literature and the Glocal City Ana María Fraile-Marcos,2014-07-17 The modern city is a space that can simultaneously represent the principles of its homeland alongside its own unique blend of the cultures that intermingle within its city limits This book makes an intervention in Canadian literary criticism by foregrounding both globalism which is increasingly perceived as the state of the art literary paradigm and the city These are two significant axes of contemporary culture and identity that were previously disregarded by a critical tradition built around the importance of space and place in Canadian writing Yet as relevant as the turn to the city and to globalism may be this collection s most notable contribution lies in linking the notion of glocality that is the intermeshing of local and global forces to representations of subjectivity in the material and figurative space of the Canadian city Dealing with oppositional discourses as multiculturalism postcolonialism feminism diaspora and environmentalism this book is an essential reference for any scholar with an interest in these areas Multiculturalism and Cultural Diversity and Families Karen G. Arms, J. Kenneth Davidson, Nelwyn B. Moore, 1992 This book was designed to facilitate awareness of other cultures and awareness of diversity The intent was to choose articles from research literature that address myriad facets of cultural diversity and families The book's purposes are to counter a vast amount of misinformation based on fallacious thinking with facts garnered from the research literature and to educate regarding cultural differences of families by informing people what those cultural differences are the editors have chosen to accentuate the human development and family life span perspectives The four most prominent minority groups in the literature are blacks Hispanics Native Americans and Asians Articles were chosen to provide an overview of each of these four groups and in some cases to provide cross comparisons the editors have focused on family functions not family dysfunction on differences not deficiencies They have listened for the voice of ethnic and racial minorities speaking for themselves Introd
