Prentice, 2016-06-21 What a shame General Moshe whispered to his Corporal of the Guard What a shame It seems like just last week this house of glory was full of music and praise People were on their knees before God praying for this community They were fighting a battle and winning Corporal Joabi reminisced Yes they were winning but they just didnt realize it The battle was fierce and the enemy had brought in Doubt and Apathy two of their strongest warriors to infiltrate here It wasnt long before the pastor was silenced because Doubt had begun to make headway within some of the congregation When they were not seeing great strides forward they began to doubt whether the work was worth continuing The people quit praying and decided that they were not qualified to tell others about our Lord Jesus They left all witnessing to the pastor and things went south from there Some of the other congregations decided that if they made programs for everything that all would be fine They started a Monday night dinner program a youth group that was very liberal in their teaching and Bible studies that manifested themselves as social events more than a time to study the Word of God They were more impressed with the social and financial status of the church than they were by the basic foundation of salvation Numbers on the membership roll were more important than the number of people delivered from their sin Profitability of the members was more vital than the righteousness and holiness of the Saints It wasnt long before the Christians that attended there began to involve sin into their business practices because it was very lucrative and as long as it was financially enhancing it was no longer sin Apathy had effectively made his move in the community Boredom and indifference began to sweep through the churches and town like a wildfire despite the pastors attempts to keep the church alive with Gods Holy Spirit The community as a whole had embraced Doubt and Apathy as trusted leaders within the other churches and the rest is history Now we have an empty church as a painful monument of defeat The Gathering P. notes with correctives counterarguments and other pertinent information Marullo looks closely at Dostoevsky's increasingly tense ties with Vissarion Belinsky Nikolai Nekrasov Ivan Turgenev and other figures of the Russian literary world He then turns to the individuals who afforded Dostoevsky security and peace amid the often negative reception from fellow writers and readers of his early fiction Finally Marullo shows us Dostoevsky's break with the Belinsky circle his struggle to stay afloat emotionally and financially and his determination to succeed as a writer while staying true to his vision most notably his insights into human psychology that would become a hallmark of his later fiction This clear and comprehensive portrait of one of the world's greatest writers provides a window into his younger years in a way no other biography has to date
