Painting Thomas Puttfarcken,2005-01-01 Late in his life Titian created a series of paintings the Four Sinners the poesie for his patron Philip II of Spain and the Final Tragedies that were dark in tone and content full of pathos and physical suffering In this major reinterpretation of Titian's art Thomas Puttfarcken shows that the often dramatic and violent subject matter of these works was not as is often argued the consequence of the artist's increasing age and sense of isolation and tragedy Rather these paintings were influenced by discussions of Aristotle's Poetics that permeated learned discourse in Italy in the mid sixteenth century The Poetics led directly to a rich theory of the visual arts and painting in particular that enabled artists like Titian to consider themselves on equal footing with poets Puttfarcken investigates Titian's late works in this context and analyzes his relations with his patrons his intellectual and humanistic contacts and his choices of subject matter style and technique The Big Picture: A Visual Guide to Words and Phrases Pasquale De Marco,2025-08-08 In a world awash with
