The Islamic Conception Of Justice:

The Islamic Conception of Justice Majid Khadduri, 1984 The Islamic Conception of Justice Majid Khadduri, In The Islamic Conception of Justice Majid Khadduri one of the world's preeminent authorities on Islamic justice and jurisprudence presents his extensive study and reflection on Islamic political legal ethical and social philosophy This book is both The Islamic Conception of Justice Majid Khadduri, 1984 Majid Khadduri one of the world's preeminent authorities on Islamic justice and jurisprudence presents his extensive study and reflection on Islamic political legal ethical and social philosophy This book is both a magisterial historical synthesis and an illumination of the beliefs and practices of modern Islam World Religion Conceptions of Justice from Islam to the Present Hossein Askari, Abbas Mirakhor, 2019-04-27 This book explains a perspective on the system of justice that emerges in Islam if rules are followed and how the Islamic system is differentiated from the conventional thinking on justice It examines conceptions of justice from the Enlightenment to Bentham to Rawls to contemporary philosophers including Sen Cohen Nussbaum and Pogge The authors present the views of twentieth century Muslim thinkers on justice who see Muslims upholding rituals but not living according to Qur'anic rules It provides empirical surveys of the current state of justice in Muslim countries analyzing the economic social and political state of affairs The authors conclude by assessing the state of justice in Muslim countries and highlighting areas in need of attention for justice to prevail Reconciling Justice Salim J. Munayer, 2024-07-05 Christians too often disregard the depth and thoughtfulness of Jewish Muslim and Middle Eastern Christian concepts of justice To fill this lack this book explores the rich development of justice within each Abrahamic faith as it relates specifically to the Palestinian Israeli context From a uniquely Palestinian Christian perspective this book offers a theological framework through the concept of reconciling justice to facilitate better understanding for multiethnic political and religious encounters as a prophetic imagination for peace and reconciliation in the region The Concept of Justice in Islam Saifur Rahman, 2014-10-20 The book is laid out to outline the Islamic standpoint on justice and its high standard This manuscript will attempt to clarify a major misconception that has gained widespread acceptance in some academic circles The misconception is that the Muslim judge judges blindly according to a rigid set of outdated laws without giving due consideration to what is in the best interest of either the public or in upholding the rights of a person Finally it will seek to demonstrate how the ethical standards that govern the conduct and office of the qadi reinforces the public trust and confidence in the Islamic judicial system as a whole Given that the Islamic judiciary does not have the powers of the sword or the purse powers that are reserved for the executive and the legislative branches of government respect is said to be the greatest strength of the institution itself Islamic law requires a Muslim judge hakim or qadi to conform to the highest ethical standards both in their personal conduct and in issuing rulings that are just and seen to be just Conceptions of Justice from Earliest History to Islam Abbas Mirakhor, Hossein Askari, 2019-04-17 This book examines the conceptions of justice from Zarathustra to Islam The text explores the conceptions of justice by Zarathustra Ancient Egypt India Mesopotamia Noah Abraham and Moses During the Axial Age 800 200BCE the focus of justice is in India China and Greece In the post Axial age the focus is on Christianity The authors then turn to Islam where justice is conceived as a system which emerges if the Qur'anic rules are followed This work concludes with the views of early Muslim thinkers and on how these societies deteriorated after the death of the Prophet The monograph is ideal for those interested in the conception of justice through the ages Islamic studies political Islam and issues of peace and justice

Islamic Concept of Crime and Justice: Political justice and crime N. Hanif, 1999 Theorizing Justice in Contemporary Arabo-Islamic Philosophy Kaouthar Karoui, 2023-12-04 What is justice from the perspective of contemporary Arabo-Islamic philosophy Kaouthar Karoui takes a transcultural approach open to different philosophical traditions and seeks to decenter Western notions of normativity She focuses on two thinkers namely the feminist Fatima Mernissi d 2015 and Mohammed Arkoun d 2010 a well known critic of hegemony and orthodoxy She situates their thinking within current debates among Arab thinkers and brings their ideas into dialog with Western political philosophy This study thus challenges stereotypes about the Arab Islamic world by discussing postcolonial theories of gender justice political freedom and religion Islam, Justice, and Democracy Sabri Ciftci, 2021-12-10 Explores Islam and democracy through historical and empirical treatments of Muslim political attitudes and conceptions of justice focusing on Muslim agency and placing values at the center of its inquiry
