

GENERATION ISOLATION: KEY FINDINGS

To empower and enable young people at scale we need to deeply understand the reality of their lives and respond to their needs.

To do this, we asked 5,000 young people aged 11-18 about their lives outside of school, their perception of the opportunities open to them and awareness of services designed to support them. These are the key findings:

73% of young people spend most of their free time on screens*.

19% spend most of their free time alone.

92% of young people do not attend a youth centre.

25% spend most of their free time playing computer games.

29% have had to stop out of school activities because of the rising cost of living.

81% of young people that attend a youth centre say it has a positive impact on their lives.

77% of young people spend most of their free time at home.

64% of young people report high or very high feelings of happiness.

31% of young people who say youth centres make a positive difference say it is because of making new friends.

1% of young people spend most of their free time hanging out on the streets.

56% of young people reported high or very high feelings of anxiety.

41% of young people do not have opportunities to meet new people and make friends.

*73% of young people surveyed spending most of their free time on screens (watching streamed content like Netflix/YouTube, gaming, spending time on their phone or watching TV)
