The Jesters Dilemma And Man Of God:

The Jester's Dilemma and Man of God Kweku Andoh-Menson, 2002-05-17 The Jester's Dilemma is a farcical play about grandiloquence trickery and deceit Set in Cape Coast Ghana the play depicts Peter a houseboy who lies about his culinary skill When Ben the house owner returns home his lunch is prepared As he is doing justice to the meal his cook Sammy pops in apologizing for his failure to cook due to some mishap in the family Ben is mystified When Peter reveals that he prepared the meal he is ridiculed Ben lays a trap to ensnare his boastful and deceitful houseboy He throws a birthday party urging Peter to cook the same delicious meal he claimed to have prepared for some invited guests But the food Peter prepares makes him a laughing stock The Jester's Dilemma was first produced at the Brooklyn Academy of Music in March 1984 Man of God depicts a conflict between man and forces of nature Set in Moree a village in Ghana the play hinges on Sam a lay Preacher whose child is dying from an unknown disease Bonso a witch doctor divines that the child is bewitched and demands sacrifices to appease the evil spirits who are responsible But Sam dismisses this as pure superstition and puts Bonso out The child's illness worsens and death seems imminent Sam debates with himself whether to give in to Bonso's demands or cling to his faith in God Man of God was first produced at The American Theater of Actors New York in November 1986 It was later produced at Samuel Beckett Theater New York in November 1998

Corpses and Jesters Matthew Hempel, 2007-01-01 The Jester and the Sages Forrest G. Robinson, Gabriel Noah Brahm, Jr., Catherine Carlstroem, 2012-01-01 The Jester and the Sages approaches the life and work of Mark Twain by placing him in conversation with three eminent philosophers of his time Friedrich Nietzsche Sigmund Freud and Karl Marx Unprecedented in Twain scholarship this interdisciplinary analysis by Forrest G Robinson Gabriel Noah Brahm Jr and Catherine Carlstroem rescues the American genius from his role as funny man by exploring how his reflections on religion politics philosophy morality and social issues overlap the philosophers developed thoughts on these subjects Remarkably they had much in common During their lifetimes Twain Nietzsche Freud and Marx witnessed massive upheavals in Western constructions of religion morality history political economy and human nature The foundations of reality had been shaken and one did not need to be a philosopher nor did one even need to read philosophy to weigh in on what this all might mean Drawing on a wide range of primary and secondary materials the authors show that Twain was well attuned to debates of the time Unlike his Continental contemporaries however he was not as systematic in developing his views Brahm and Robinson's chapter on Nietzsche and Twain reveals their subjects common defiance of the moral and religious truisms of their time Both desired freedom resented the constraints of Christian civilization and saw punishing guilt as the disease of modern man Pervasive moral evasion and bland conformity were the principal end result they believed In addition to a continuing focus on guilt Robinson discovers in his chapter on Freud and Twain that the two men shared a lifelong fascination with the mysteries of the human mind From the formative influence of childhood and repression to dreams and the unconscious the mind could free people or keep them in perpetual chains The realm of the unconscious was of special interest to both men as it pertained to the creation of art In the final chapter Carlstroem and Robinson explain that despite significant differences in their views of human nature history and progress Twain and Marx were both profoundly disturbed by economic and social injustice in the world Of particular concern was the gulf that industrial capitalism opened between the privileged elite property owners and the vast class of property less workers Moralists impatient with conventional morality Twain and Marx wanted to free ordinary people from the illusions that enslaved them Twain did not know the work s of Nietzsche Freud and Marx well yet many of his thoughts cross those of his philosophical contemporaries By focusing on the deeper aspects of Twain s intellectual makeup Robinson Brahm and Carlstroem supplement the traditional appreciation of the forces that drove Twain s creativity and the dynamics of his humor

Destruction and Creation Mary Ann Mattoon,1999 The 14th Congress for Analytical Psychology was held 23-28 August 1998 in the ancient city of Florence Italy The theme Destruction and Creation Personal and Cultural Transformations is especially appropriate to the Italian setting with that nation s history of destruction both from nature and from human activity and its tradition especially in Florence of creative individuals and institutions The theme is fitting also to the context of Jungian psychology with its emphasis on these and other pairs of opposites with their integral role in psychic wholeness Acknowledging also that destruction is indispensable to creation some Jungians prefer the term creative unconscious to the traditional collective unconscious

Two Reformers Caryn D. Riswold,2007-07-15 By them we have been carried away out of our own land as into a Babylonian captivity and despoiled of all our precious possessions Martin Luther 1520 Their goal is our deracination which is detachment from one s background as from homeland customs traditions Thus women and other Elemental creatures on this planet are rendered homeless cut off from knowledge of our Race s customs and traditions Mary Daly 1984 What is this land this world of which these two theologians are speaking Why do the two statements above sound similar in the authors longing for a true home for our own land And who is this them who carries us away and cuts us off Could it be possible that Martin Luther and Mary Daly different in almost every way are saying something similar Why do these key figures in the Christian theological tradition who come from different times places and politics engage in such a parallel task How is this possible This book examines a series of surprising parallels between two key reforming figures in the Christian theological tradition and suggests that the two are in fact engaged in the same task political theology Applying a new label to familiar theologians enables readers to see both of them as well as their reformations in a new light The sixteenth century Reformation and second wave feminism are viewed through the pioneering work of Luther and Daly here to further establish the political content and consequence of these theologians

The Last Letters of Thomas More Saint Thomas More,2001 Written from the Tower of London these letters of Thomas More still speak powerfully today The story of Thomas More recently told in Peter Ackroyd s bestselling biography is well known In the spring of 1534 Thomas More was taken to the Tower of London and after fourteen months in prison the brilliant author of
