The Jews Against Hitler Not As A Lamb:

Jewish Resistance Against the Nazis Patrick Henry, 2014-04-20 This volume puts to rest the myth that the Jews went passively to the slaughter like sheep Indeed Jews resisted in every Nazi occupied country in the forests the ghettos and the concentration camps The essays presented here consider Jewish resistance to be resistance by Jewish persons in specifically Jewish groups or by Jewish persons working within non Jewish organizations Resistance could be armed revolt flight the rescue of targeted individuals by concealment in non Jewish homes farms and institutions or by the smuggling of Jews into countries where Jews were not objects of Nazi persecution Other forms of resistance include every act that Jewish people carried out to fight against the dehumanizing agenda of the Nazis acts such as smuggling food clothing and medicine into the ghettos putting on plays reading poetry organizing orchestras and art exhibits forming schools leaving diaries and praying These attempts to remain physically intellectually culturally morally and theologically alive constituted resistance to Nazi oppression which was designed to demolish individuals destroy their soul and obliterate their desire to live Claude Lanzmann's 'Shoah' Outtakes Sue Vice, 2021-04-22 As we approach the end of the era of the witness given the passing on of the generation of Holocaust survivors Claude Lanzmann's archive of 220 hours of footage excluded from his ground breaking documentary Shoah 1985 offers a remarkable opportunity to encounter previously unseen interviews with survivors and other witnesses recorded in the late 1970s Although the archive is all available freely to view online and includes extra footage of those who appear in Shoah this book focuses on the interviews from which no extracts appear in the finished film or in any subsequent release The material analysed features interviews with such significant figures as the former partisan Abba Kovner wartime activist Hansi Brand Kovno Ghetto leader Leib Garfunkel rescuer Tadeusz Pankiewicz and members of Roosevelt's War Refugee Board and focuses throughout on the efforts at rescue and resistance by those within and outside occupied Europe Sue Vice contends that watching and analysing this wholly excluded footage gives us new insights into the making of Shoah through what was left out Moreover she reveals that the near impossibility of rescue and often suicidal implications of resistance emerge through these excluded interviews as inextricable from the process of genocide She concludes by arguing that the outtakes show the potential for new filmic forms envisaged on Lanzmann's part in order to represent the crucial topics of attempted Holocaust rescue and resistance So It Was True: American Protestant Press and the Nazi Persecution of the Jews Robert W. Ross, 1998-06-02 How much did American Protestants know about the Nazi persecution of European Jews before and during World War II Very little many of them claimed in the postwar years Robert W Ross challenges that answer in this analysis of the ways in which Protestant journals ranging from The Christian Century to The Arkansas Baptist reported and editorialized on the subject from 1933 through 1945 The Jewish Holocaust Marty Bloomberg, Buckley Barry Barrett, 1995-01-01 This expanded edition of the guide to major books in English on the Holocaust is organized into ten subject areas reference materials European antisemitism background materials the Holocaust years

Jewish resistance This Cannot Happen Here Ben Braber, 2025-10-01 How did the integration of Jews into Dutch society influenced Jewish resistance during the German occupation of the Netherlands in the Second World War In this book Ben Braber answers the question how the integration of Jews into Dutch society influenced Jewish resistance during the German occupation of the Netherlands in the second world war This study highlights the social position of Jews and their group characteristics but also reviews other factors that determined what forms Jewish resistance took such as personal character and individual circumstance This is the first comprehensive study of this subject in the English language of Jewish resistance in the Netherlands It offers a new perspective on Jews during the Holocaust and counters the prejudice about Jews failing to resist persecution This book is also relevant for today's multi-ethnic society It is a case study about the hampered integration of a minority in particular how people in this group react when they are forcefully segregated and persecuted while thinking this cannot happen here Judging 'Privileged' Jews Adam Brown, 2015-05 The Nazis persecution of the Jews during the Holocaust included the creation of prisoner hierarchies that forced victims to cooperate with their persecutors Many in the camps and ghettos came to hold so called privileged positions and their behavior has often been judged as self-serving and harmful to fellow inmates Such controversial figures constitute an intrinsically important frequently misunderstood and often taboo aspect of the Holocaust Drawing on Primo Levi's concept of the grey zone this study analyzes the passing of moral judgment on privileged Jews as represented by writers such as Raul Hilberg and in films including Claude Lanzmann's Shoah and Steven Spielberg's Schindler's List Negotiating the problems and potentialities of representing the unrepresentable this book engages with issues that are fundamental to present day attempts to understand the Holocaust and deeply relevant to reflections on human nature Out of the Inferno Richard C. Lukas, 2013-07-24 Moving testimonies recount the sadism mass murders deportations and imprisonment which Poles suffered at the hands of Hitler's invading army Publishers Weekly Richard Lukas's book encompassing the wartime recollections of sixty ordinary Poles under Nazi occupation constitutes a valuable contribution to a new perspective on World War II Lukas presents gripping first person accounts of the years 1939-1945 by Polish Christians from diverse social and economic backgrounds Their narratives from both oral and written sources contribute enormously to our understanding of the totality of the Holocaust Many of those who speak in these pages attempted often at extreme peril to assist Jewish friends neighbors and even strangers who otherwise faced certain death at the hands of the German occupiers Some took part in the underground resistance movement Others isolated from the Jews experience and ill informed of that horror were understandably preoccupied with their own survival in the face of brutal condition intended ultimately to exterminate or enslave the entire Polish population These recollections of men and women are moving testimony to the human courage of a people struggling for survival against the rule of depravity The power of their painful witness against the inhumanities of those times is undeniable Lukas presents a selection of oral and written memoirs of some 60 Polish men and women who lived through the

German occupation of Poland in World War II Library Journal A Little Matter of Genocide Ward Churchill, 1997 Ward Churchill has achieved an unparalleled reputation as a scholar activist and analyst of indigenous issues in North America Here he explores the history of holocaust and denial in this hemisphere beginning with the arrival of Columbus and continuing on into the present He frames the matter by examining both revisionist denial of the nazi perpetrated Holocaust and the opposing claim of its exclusive uniqueness using the full scope of what happened in Europe as a backdrop against which to demonstrate that genocide is precisely what has been and still is carried out against the American Indians Churchill lays bare the means by which many of these realities have remained hidden how public understanding of this most monstrous of crimes has been subverted not only by its perpetrators and their beneficiaries but by the institutions and individuals who perceive advantages in the confusion In particular he outlines the reasons underlying the United States s 40 year refusal to ratify the Genocide Convention as well as the implications of the attempt to exempt itself from compliance when it finally offered its endorsement In conclusion Churchill proposes a more adequate and coherent definition of the crime as a basis for identifying punishing and preventing genocidal practices wherever and whenever they occur Ward Churchill enrolled Keetoowah Cherokee is Professor of American Indian Studies with the Department of Ethnic Studies at the University of Colorado Boulder A member of the American Indian Movement since 1972 he has been a leader of the Colorado chapter for the past fifteen years Among his previous books have been Fantasies of a Master Race Struggle for the Land Since Predator Came and From a Native Son All or Nothing Jonathan Steinberg, 2002-09-11 German and Italian fascist armies treated the Jews quite differently during the Second World War Jonathan Steinberg unravels the motives and force underpinning Nazism and Fascism and discusses the roots of atrocity during war Jewish Rhetorics Michael Bernard-Donals, Janice W. Fernheimer, 2014-12-02 This volume the first of its kind establishes and clarifies the significance of Jewish rhetorics as its own field and as a field within rhetoric studies Diverse essays illuminate and complicate the editors definition of a Jewish rhetorical stance as allowing speakers to maintain a resolute sense of engagement with their fellows and their community while also remaining aware of the dislocation from the members of those communities Topics include the historical and theoretical foundations of Jewish rhetorics cultural variants and modes of cultural expression and intersections with Greco Roman Christian Islamic and contemporary rhetorical theory and practice In addition the contributors examine gender and Yiddish and evaluate the actual and potential effect of Jewish rhetorics on contemporary scholarship and on the ways we understand and teach language and writing The contributors include some of the world s leading scholars of rhetoric writing and Jewish studies
