The Mythology of God Derrick van Zyl,2017-11-30 Man has been creating gods for the last 40 000 years in order to make sense of himself and to explain life as it was primitively perceived before science developed knowledge expanded and with it our factual understanding of where we come from who we are and how we came to be here on our little blue planet Not a single god had anything to do with creating you or anything at all for that matter Not even your god the one you were brought up and indoctrinated with This book is an attempt to firstly explain how the universe was formed How planets and eventually us evolved over a period of 13 73 billion years based on facts derived from science verified peer reviewed and corroborated and by also coming to the same conclusions using vastly different methods as opposed to creationist fairytales and superstition If you understand the basics of evolution then the second part in which Islam and Christianity are exposed for what they are may give you some perspective of how religion poisons everything in the words of the late great Christopher Hitchens This book is not only a consciousness raiser regarding the delusion that religion imposes and the biblical past and current violence it perpetually perpetrates despite its desperate claims to the contrary but also hopefully will help to eradicate its theocratically skewed fundamentalism where extremism finds its wings It s a book about truth It is about morality and intellectual honesty and unveiling the mask of religion and exposing the delusion of blind faith through reason Exposing these religions with their cult like delusional inaccuracies cannot be underestimated Our future as a species depends on it In the words of Stephen Roberts When you understand why you dismiss all the other possible gods you will understand why I dismiss yours Put your belief in people and love Imaginary gods do not deserve them Quote The amount of research that went into this book is prodigious exceeding what I have seen in volume and scope in all of the PhD theses that I edited over the years Editor s comment

The Heavenly Book Motif in Judeo-Christian Apocalypses 200 BCE-200 CE Leslie Baynes,2012 The first full length analysis of the heavenly book motif in English this study highlights a vital element of early Jewish and Christian apocalyptic literature Through multiple intertextual readings it demonstrates that for the ancients heavenly writing had life or death consequences Christian Perspectives on Transforming Interreligious Encounter Peter C. Phan,Anh Q. Other through non Christian sacred texts Contributors explore the Jewish Christian relationship offer Christian interpretations of Hindu Buddhist and Confucian scriptures and discuss the Qur an s potential to refine Christian theology The dangers of comparative theology are warned against and alternative perspectives such as Asian liberation theology are proposed for situating religion critically as well as share the insights on Christian engagement with Zen practice The second part explores the transformation of key Christian doctrines through interreligious encounters Contributors delve into topics such as the conditions for faith and divine revelation formulating a Christology in dialogue with Asian traditions and understanding the Spirit as a source of questioning They investigate the communitarian dimension of religious faith discuss the Catholic Church s stance on interreligious dialogue examine the role of biblical hermeneutics in decolonizing theology and reflect on the existential threat of ecological destruction The third part pays tribute to Leo Lefebure emphasizing his impact on Catholic theology and comparative theology and concludes with Lefebure s epilogue providing him with the last word

The Seed of Abraham Michael M. C. Reardon, Pesach Wolicki, 2025-06-25 The inspiration for this volume emerged from years of friendship dialogue and collaboration between a Jewish rabbi and Christian professor Historically Jewish Christian relations has been a fraught sphere of inquiry Despite sharing a set of Scriptures the relationship between Christians and Jews has been marked by distrust misunderstandings and exaggerated theological differences which taken together appear to create an indissoluble wedge between the two faiths This volume brings the two faiths into fruitful and productive dialogue by unearthing recondite yet highly significant features shared between them Beyond being an academic exercise the aspiration undergirding this project is to bridge the gap between Jews and Christians and by doing so chart a path forward toward rapprochement reconciliation and Jewish Christian unity

God's Quest Lyman C.D. Kulathungam, 2019-12-09 Why bother with God when he is viewed as a sacred superstition a discarded non entity or a pretext for religious wars Jews and Christians have doubted and discarded God at many times throughout the ages and have also justified countless conflicts in his name Their history however tells a different story Here we observe the historical reality of God s relentless quest to relate with people whether Jew or gentile Despite significant differences between these communities this is the DNA that binds them and places them in a paradigm different from the one articulated in The Quest Christ Amidst the Quest where people are seeking to be freed from their predicament The Judeo Christian narrative shows God s incessant quest orchestrated through various channels such as scriptural revelation miraculous interventions covenantal commitments divine presence in the tabernacle or the temple God s sacrificial incarnation in Christ and the advent of the anticipated Jewish Messiah The narrative climaxes in a grand finale when humans and their habitat will be ushered into an age of peace and harmony Journeying through such a narrative will provide assurance that God is walking with you amidst life s turmoil and that the best is yet to be

Ephesus Edgar Stubbersfield, 2022-12-15 Welcome to the long abandoned glories of the Greek city of Ephesus in what is now Turkey While Jerusalem has been called the cradle of

Christianity Ephesus was surely its nursery For one momentous generation Ephesus was the literary focus of early Christianity and by its compilations influenced Christianity more than Jerusalem Antioch or Rome This ancient city played a pivotal part in the formation of the New Testament with at least six of its books having a connection there Paul ministered in Ephesus longer than in any other city and legend has it that John lived the last of his very long life in Ephesus These same legends also say that Timothy became the city's first bishop and was martyred and where the runaway slave Onesimus would eventually succeed him However these books were written to a world and culture that was vastly different from our own Without understanding life situations of the intended recipients that Paul and John were writing into we can easily read into them a meaning not necessarily intended by the author This book will give you that understanding without the intrusion of specialist terms

The Economy in Jewish History Gideon Reuveni, Sarah Wobick-Segev, 2010-12-01 Jewish historiography tends to stress the religious cultural and political aspects of the past By contrast the economy has been pushed to the margins of the Jewish discourse and scholarship since the end of the Second World War This volume takes a fresh look at Jews and the economy arguing that a broader cultural approach is needed to understand the central importance of the economy The very dynamics of economy and its ability to function depend on the ability of individuals to interact and on the shared values and norms that are fostered within ethnic communities Thus this volume sheds new light on the interrelationship between religion ethnicity culture and the economy revealing the potential of an economic turn in the study of history
