The Man Who Swam Into History:

The Man Who Swam into History Robert A. Rosenstone, 2010-01-01 The story begins with a grandfather who heroically escaped from Russia by swimming the Pruth River to Romania or did he Then there are stories of another grandfather who kept a lifelong mistress grandmothers who were ignored except in the kitchen migrations legal and illegal from Eastern Europe to Canada to California racketeers on one side of the family and Communists on the other and a West Coast adolescence in the McCarthy years All of these mostly true stories form a Jewish family's history a tale of dislocation and assimilation But in the hands of award winning historian Robert Rosenstone they become much more The fragments of memory so beautifully preserved in The Man Who Swam into History add unforgettable human characters to the now familiar story of the Jewish diaspora in the twentieth century This combination memoir short story collection recounts the Rosenstone family's passage from Romania to America Robert Rosenstone tells the story not as a single linear narrative but through tales sequences windows moments and fragments resurrected from the lives of three generations in my two parental families set in five countries on two continents over the period of almost a century This more literary and personal approach allows Rosenstone's relatives to emerge as distinct personalities voices who quarrel and gossip share their dreams and fears and maintain the ties of a loving if eccentric family Among the genre of coming to America tales The Man Who Swam into History is a work of unique vision one that both records and reconstructs the past even as it continuously and humorously questions the truth of its own assertions

Jewish Topographies Julia Brauch, Anna Lipphardt, 2016-05-06 How have Jews experienced their environments and how have they engaged with specific places How do Jewish spaces emerge how are they contested performed and used With these questions in mind this anthology focuses on the production of Jewish space and lived Jewish spaces and sheds light on their diversity inter connectedness and multi dimensionality By exploring historical and contemporary case studies from around the world the essays collected here shift the temporal focus generally applied to Jewish civilization to a spatially oriented perspective The reader encounters sites such as the gardens cultivated in the Ghettos during World War II the Israeli development town of Netivot Thornhill an Orthodox suburb of Toronto or new virtual sites of Jewish Second Life on the Internet and learns about the Jewish landkentenish movement in Interwar Poland the Jewish connection to the sea and the culinary landscapes of Russian Jews in New York Employing an interdisciplinary approach with a strong foothold in cultural history and cultural anthropology this anthology introduces new methodological and conceptual approaches to the study of the spatial aspects of Jewish civilization

Theoretical Perspectives on Historians' Autobiographies Jaume Aurell, 2015-07-24 E H Carr wrote study the historian before you begin to study the facts This book approaches the life work ideas debates and the context of key 20th and 21st century historians through an analysis of their life writing projects viewed as historiographical sources Merging literary studies on autobiography with theories of history it provides a systematic and detailed analysis of the autobiographies of the most outstanding historians from the classic texts by Giambattista Vico Edward Gibbon and Henry Adams to the Annales historians such as Fernand Braudel Philippe Ariès and Georges Duby to Marxist historians such as Eric Hobsbawm and Annie Kriegel to postmodern historians such as Carolyn Steedman Robert A. Rosenstone Carlos Eire Luisa Passerini Elisabeth Roudinesco Gerda Lerner and Sheila Fitzpatrick and to interventionist historians such as Geoff Eley Jill Ker Conway Natalie Davis and Gabrielle Spiegel Using a comparative approach to these texts this book identifies six historical autobiographical styles humanistic biographic ego historical monographic postmodern and interventionist By privileging historians autobiographies this book proposes a renewed history of historiography one that engages the theoretical evolution of the discipline the way history has been interpreted by historians and the currents of thought and ideologies that have dominated and influenced its writing in the 20th and 21st centuries

Dancing on the Sun Stone Marjorie Becker, 2024-05-01 Dancing on the Sun Stone is a uniquely transdisciplinary work that fuses modern Latin American history and literature to explore women's lives and gendered politics in Mexico In this important work scholar Marjorie Becker focuses on the complex Mexican women of rural Michoacán who performed an illicit revolutionary dance and places it in dialogue with Nobel Prize winner Octavio Paz's signature poem Sun Stone allowing a new gendered history to emerge Through this dialogue the women reveal intimate and intellectual complexities of Mexican women's gendered voices their histories and their intimate and public lives The work further demonstrates the ways these women in dialogue with Paz transformed history itself Becker's multigenre work reconstructs Mexican history through the temporal experiences of crucial Michoacán females experiences that culminate in their complex revolutionary dance which itself emerges as a transformative revolutionary language

Taking on the Burden of History George M. Van Sant, 2008-08-08 This book is a memoir of the author's active service in the United States Marine Corps It recounts his decision to enlist boot camp service in North China recall in 1950 commissioning adventures in Hollywood combat service in Korea and his homecoming The author reveals he was not your typical hard charging Marine The book tells stories of many heroes and a few cowards It recounts some terrifying experiences some hilarious episodes and graphically illustrates how the superlative history of the Corps imposes a burden on every individual Marine to measure up Adventures of a Postmodern Historian Robert A. Rosenstone, 2016-09-22 Robert Rosenstone was among the first postmodern historians and remains one of the most renowned In this honest revealing and often funny memoir he shows us how he got there and why Adventures of a Postmodern Historian chronicles Rosenstone's research journeys over half a century Beginning in the 1960s his offbeat trajectory took him on adventures through the police states of Franco Spain and the Soviet Union to the Shinto shrines and Zen temples of Japan and ultimately to Hollywood Alongside his own memoirs Rosenstone reflects upon developments and changes within the realm of professional history which in turn reflect the social cultural and intellectual shifts of the late 20th century A pioneer of experimental and creative history he suggests how the experience of the historian can inflect the written history and provides a defence of innovation in historical writing that is both intellectually rigorous and entertaining In doing so he offers a window into the state of history today and points to exciting new ways of writing the past This is a book about the craft of history about both doing research and writing it It should be required reading for all historians Strong Girls in History Susan B. Katz,2022-08-02 Inspiring stories of unstoppable girls and everything they achieved for kids ages 8 to 12 Girls are smart capable and determined All over the world young women have made huge strides in pop culture politics social justice and more This book explores 15 of these girls and the incredible impact they made before they were even 20 years old Discover how they powered through challenges and stood up to anyone who said they couldn't make a difference The girl who invented a genre Read about famous author S E Hinton who wrote the bestselling book The Outsiders as a teenager and helped launch the popularity of Young Adult novels A protector of natural resources Learn how Autumn Peltier became the chief water commissioner for the Anishinabek Nation in Ontario Canada when she was just 14 years old A champion for equality Find out how 11 year old activist Marley Dias started a campaign to collect books featuring Black girls as the main character and donate them to schools around the world Show any ambitious girl how much talent and power she has inside her with Strong Girls Change History The Grey Undercurrent Felix Schürmann,2023-04-03 By extending their voyages to all oceans from the 1760s onward whaling vessels from North America and Europe spanned a novel net of hunting grounds maritime routes supply posts and transport chains across the globe For obtaining provisions cutting firewood recruiting additional men and transshipping whale products these highly mobile hunters regularly frequented coastal places and islands along their routes which were largely determined by the migratory movements of their prey American style pelagic whaling thus constituted a significant though often overlooked factor in connecting people and places between distant world regions during the long nineteenth century Focusing on Africa this book investigates side effects resulting from stopovers by whalers for littoral societies on the economic social political and cultural level For this purpose it draws on eight local case studies four from Africa's west coast and four from its east coast In the overall picture the book shows a broad range of effects and side effects of different forms and strengths which it figures as a grey undercurrent of global history Salute to the Romanian Jews in America and Canada, 1850-2010 Vladimir F. Duels in the Pool Matthew De George, 2013-07-05 In the sports world battles between rivals can be friendly hotly contested or even hostile An individual sport at its core swimming is defined by iconic rivalries such as those between Ian Thorpe and Grant Hackett Michael Phelps and Ryan Lochte and Jenny Thompson and Dara Torres Throughout its history swimming has showcased some of its top athletes competing face to face challenging each other in ways that captivate their fans Duels in the Pool Swimming s Greatest Rivalries highlights the best of these contests Spanning nearly 100 years this book delves into the individual showdowns team battles friendly competitions and heated political rivalries that have played out in pools around the world From their early beginnings through the highlights of their careers this book follows the top athletes in the sport and the rivals who pushed them to the pinnacle of swimming Individual races are recounted bringing to life the intense competition that drove the swimmers to glory In addition to the individual athletes Duels in the Pool also examines some of the most exciting rivalries that existed between colleges and among nations Although such rivalries as those between the U S and Australia took place exclusively in the pool others such as the battle against East Germany during the 1970s and 80s were intensified by the political climate and allegations of doping Exhaustively researched Duels in the Pool includes original interviews and rich details shining a light on some of the sport s finest athletes and the rivalries that propelled them to greatness This book will appeal not only to sports historians and researchers but also to fans of swimming at every level Red Star, Crescent Moon Robert A. Rosenstone, 2012-05-30

An international film festival sparks a cross cultural romance sparks in this novel of cultural history ethnic tensions and the power of love Aisha and Benjamin meet at a film festival in Spain and the instant attraction hits them both like a lightning bolt She is a documentary filmmaker and he is a historian She is a Muslim and he is a Jew And as they get closer the misunderstanding between them and the tensions between their two worlds escalates to dizzying extremes Red Star Crescent Moon mixes contemporary and the historical worlds in a bold tale of clashing cultures It is a tale of new romance and ancient conflicts where pop culture and political violence exist side by side The romance of Aisha and Benjamin is set against the backdrop of a Hollywood epic in production a movie megastar with seductive intentions and terrorists who wish to reclaim Spain for Islam Losing Site Dr Shelley Hornstein, 2013-06-28 As Ruskin suggests in his Seven Lamps of Architecture We may live without architecture and worship without her but we cannot remember without her We remember best when we experience an event in a place But what happens when we leave that place or that place no longer exists This book addresses the relationship between memory and place and asks how architecture captures and triggers memory It explores how architecture exists as a material object and how it registers as a place that we come to remember beyond the physical site itself It questions what architecture is in the broadest sense assuming that it is not simply buildings Rather architecture is considered to be the mapping of physical mental or emotional space The idea that we are all architects in some measure as we actively organize and select pathways and markers within space is central to this book s premise Each chapter provides a different example of the manifold ways in which the physical place of architecture is curated by the architecture in our mental space our imaginary toolbox when we think of a place and look at a photograph or visit a site and describe it later or send a postcard By connecting architecture with other disciplines such as geography visual culture sociology and urban studies as well as the fine and performing arts this book puts forward the idea that a conversation about architecture is not exclusively about formal isolated buildings but instead must be deepened and broadened as spatialized visualizations and experiences of place The Nature of History Reader Keith Jenkins, Alun Munslow, 2004 The question of what the nature of history is is a key issue for all students of history It is recognized by many that the past and history are different phenomena and that the way the past is actively historicized can be highly problematic and contested Border Crossings Paul Arthur, Leena Kurvet-Kaosaar, 2020-04-28 The border between intimate memory and historical revelation is explored in this wide ranging collection which features original contributions from leading figures in the life writing field from Australia Canada Europe UK and the USA The transmission and preservation of personal knowledge and stories from generation to generation frequently requires crossing into the private contested spaces of memory The most secret accounts or guarded remnants of information can sometimes lead to the most profound insights In this context there is a delicate balance between life writing's role in revealing lives and the desire to be respectful towards them As the essays in this book attest exposing secrets even if humiliating can be a way of honouring lives Throughout runs the framing theme of memory as the source of all intergenerational transmission of culture and history whether relating to family community nation ancestry or political allegiance and the importance of the intimate and personal in that process of handing on This book was originally published as a special issue of Life Writing The Rotarian, 1968-12 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Gandhi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine The Old Testament, Arranged in Historical and Chronological Order, (on the Basis of Lightfoot's Chronicle,) in Such a Manner, that the Books, Chapters, Psalms, Prophecies, &c. &c. May be Read as One Connected History, in the Words of the Authorized Translation, 1838 Genealogies of the West Jaume Aurell, 2023-02-14 Genealogies of the West presents a new look at the West by tracing the still recognizable footprints of the past and reflecting on the present challenges it faces Through a review of its rich and often controversial history it recalls the genealogies of the plural processes ideas characters and events that structure the West's tradition and identity and their presence nowadays It shows the faces of the Modernity and its most relevant achievements such as the state capitalism science technology ideologies and enlightenments and how they are being revised nowadays by postmodernity This helps readers gain perspective gives clues for understanding the complexities of the past challenges some pre assumed historical inaccuracies identifies its weight and presence in the present and projects these thoughts toward the future The 100 Greatest Swimmers in History John Lohn, 2018-08-24 In The 100 Greatest Swimmers in History John Lohn profiles some of the biggest names the sport has ever seen from Mark Spitz and Tracy Caulkins to Katie Ledecky and Michael Phelps Each swimmer is ranked based on achievements such as Olympic medals world and European championships and world records Lohn provides insight into how these swimmers became the best in their sport by detailing their accomplishments finest performances records and noteworthy biographical information This new updated edition contains results from the two most recent World

Championships and the 2016 Olympic Games and while many athletes further cemented their top 100 status some newcomers also made their way into the rankings including Katie Ledecky who launched herself high up the list with her dominating performances The 100 Greatest Swimmers in History also features a new section highlighting the top coaches in the sport and includes multiple appendixes that serve as wonderful references for information such as world and Olympic medal counts of the profiled swimmers Fans coaches athletes and sport historians alike will find this an indispensable resource

The New History Alun Munslow, 2016-09-17 The notion of history has always been one strenuously debated by both academics and the wider population This deeply provocative re thinking of our engagement with the past by one of the world's leading post modern historians takes that debate one step further Alun Munslow re assesses history in the light of post modernism and other intellectual challenges which have questioned the primacy of the modernist epistemology of empiricism In an original and stimulating vision of history that will intrigue all those seriously interested in the subject Munslow argues that history is not only about the sources but a literary construction Munslow concludes that history as a cultural narrative about the past can never tell us what the past really means This far reaching conclusion is based on the radical idea that the content of history is defined as much by the nature of the language used to represent and interpret that content as it is by research into the sources This suggests that history does not produce the most likely meaning of the past but rather can only generate alternative meanings The lead volume in a major new series on historical thinking and practice this is an accessible yet absorbing study that breaks new ground in discussing the stage history is at now and perhaps most engagingly the direction it will take in the future

Scriptural Communion with God; Or, The Holy Bible, Arranged in Historical and Chronological Order in Such Manner that the Books, Chapters, Psalms, Prophecies, &c. &c., May be Read as One Connected History, in the Words of the Authorized Translation; Newly Divided Into Sections; for Families and Individuals; with Introductions and Prayers; and Notes for the Student and Inquirer ,1845
