

The Third World and Non-alignment in the 1960s

- As colonial empires disappeared, newly independent states that gained nationhood after World War II still found themselves economically dependent on the industrialized, wealthier Western states and caught between the tensions of great-power rivalry. The conclusion of the Second World War in 1945 brought neither peace nor actual war but almost continuous international crisis as the East and the West struggled for advantage in the Cold War.

Security, Democracy, and Good Governance in Postmilitary-Rule Nigeria, Volume Two Dr. Dan Mou, 2017-01-12 This book shows that the security economic political and social problems challenging national security democracy and good governance currently in Nigeria would get better or worse depending on what happens to the 71 percent of Nigerias population still living below the poverty line This is in spite of the billions of petrodollars that Nigeria garnered as revenue over the past few decades It reveals that one does not need to be a political prophet to predict that if these challenges are not successfully addressed through good governance and inclusive growth this country will witness worse civil disobedience violence revolts militancy breakdown of law and order more kidnappings and more of the citizens trying to check out of the country to other parts of the world in the future It concludes however that under such intense pressures the Government of Nigeria even if it is simply for its self preservation will be forced by the objective conditions to move against the interests of the dominant groups and classes in Nigeria These are the ones who have for long captured and hijacked state power and the resources of the country for their exclusive use There is this perception that Nigerians dont write and read This perception is deep seated even among intellectuals who see our authors as shallow researchers But Dr Dan Mou has debunked that myth and shown that Nigerians can write well researched and detailed books It is quite prophetic in its assessment of the Nigerian State Agbo Agbo deputy editor The Nation Dr Dan Mou has proven himself a world class scholar and an intellectual colossus His reputation as an internationally renowned public policy expert has continued to soar I congratulate him for these remarkable achievements Professor Justice Abdul Fatai Kuti first justice of Abuja High Court and former dean faculty of law University of Ado Ekiti Ekiti State of Nigeria Dr Mou is certainly one of the best scholars we have on the African continent As an educationist myself before I became a traditional ruler I agree totally with his analysis and conclusions I share the optimism Dr Mou has expressed that once the recommendations therein are adopted and meticulously implemented with proper monitoring and evaluation of such resultant policies and programmes Nigeria and indeed Africa would be able to solve most of these challenges HRH Alh Dr Sheban Audu Nizazo III Etsu Kwali Etsu Kwalis Palace Abuja Nigeria

Games of Conflict and Cooperation in Asia Motoshi Suzuki, Akira Okada, 2017-02-07 This edited volume is an outcome of the first major collaborative project between Japanese economists and political scientists funded by the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science The authors of the individual chapters show that Asian states play games of conflict and cooperation strategically by creating changing or destroying institutions For them conflict and cooperation are inseparable phenomena and are integral parts of states strategic interactions under constraints Through the establishment of appropriate institutions that coordinate states actions present conflict can be turned into stable cooperation in the future No discernible difference exists in the extent of rationality between the East and the West but substantial variations between regions or even within a region are found in institutions that are influenced by history and culture Historical and cultural variations divide contemporary Asia making regional institutional cooperation difficult and prompting some Asian states to use global or inter regional arrangements in order to obtain benefits of cooperation. Qualifications are provided for this line of argument in the first chapter which also discusses the affinity of international relations theory and game theory with special attention to Japan and Asia. The following ten substantive chapters are developed based on the conceptual framework and for integrity and coherence are sub-grouped into four parts that correspond to major issues in international relations scholarship: 1 conflict management, 2 arms control, 3 trade and 4 currency.

Rethinking Power, Institutions and Ideas in World Politics Amitav Acharya, 2014-01-10. The study of international relations has traditionally been dominated by Western ideas and practices and marginalized the voice and experiences of the non-Western states and societies. As the world moves to a post-Western era, it is imperative that the field of IR acquires a more global meaning and relevance. Drawing together the work of renowned scholar Amitav Acharya and framed by a new introduction and conclusion written for the volume, this book exposes the narrow meaning currently attached to some of the key concepts and ideas in IR and calls for alternative and broader understandings of them. The need for recasting the discipline has motivated and undergirded Acharya's own scholarship since his entry into the field over three decades ago. This book reflects his own engagement, quarrels and compromise and concludes with suggestions for new pathways to a Global IR: a forward-looking and inclusive enterprise that is reflective of the multiple and global heritage of IR in an changing and interconnected world. It is essential reading for anyone who is concerned about the history, development and future of international relations and international relations theory.

International History of the Twentieth Century and Beyond Anthony Best, 2008. This major global history of the twentieth century is written by four prominent international historians for first-year undergraduate level and upward. Using their thematic and regional expertise, the authors cover events in Europe, Asia, the Middle East, Africa and the Americas from the last century and beyond. Among the areas this book covers are the decline of European hegemony over the international order, the diffusion of power to the two superpowers, the rise of newly independent states in Asia and Africa, the course and consequences of the major

Third World Militarization Jagat S. Mehta, 1985. The Croatian Spring Ante Batovic, 2017-06-30. Nationalism is a key topic within Balkan Studies and one of the driving forces behind the bloody and difficult history of the region. Using primary sources not previously utilized by western scholars, this book documents the Croatian Spring: a national and liberal movement that began in the mid-sixties after the fall of the vice-president and head of the Yugoslav secret police, Aleksandar Rankovic. The author chronicles these developments of democratisation and decentralisation of communist Yugoslavia, placing them in the wider context of the Cold War and Yugoslav relations with the Soviet Union and the United States. Tito managed to balance national stability and his relations with East and West until he felt that the national liberal movements challenged his authority and thus threaten the very foundations of the Yugoslav state. From late 1971 onwards, the liberal political and cultural classes of Croatia and other republics were abruptly purged, impoverishing Yugoslav leadership for subsequent decades. Batovic also considers the role of the West who felt a centralised and stable Yugoslavia was in their interests and quickly accommodated themselves to the repression of the reformist movement

The Post-Imperial Age: The Great Powers and the Wider World J.P.D. Dunbabin, 2014-07-15 This volume looks at the impact on the wider world of the end of the European empires and their replacement by a new international order dominated by East West rivalries After surveying the decolonization process the book looks successively at the different patterns of experience in Southern Africa South East Asia and India East Asia and the Pacific the Middle East and the Americas It concludes with a sustained analysis of the International System the functioning of international organizations and the global role of money and trade

Non-Aligned Movement Summits Jovan Cavoški, 2022-05-19 Using newly declassified documents from Serbian British Indian Chinese Myanmar U S and Soviet archives Non Aligned Movement Summits shows how the Non Aligned Movement NAM gradually evolved into the third force of Cold War politics enveloping most of the post colonial and non bloc world Jovan Cavo ki follows the evolution of the NAM through its summits and other gatherings during which major political decisions pertaining to the destiny of the Third World were made These events were scrutinized by all major powers and had a corresponding effect on their policies From the Belgrade Conference in 1961 until 1989 all major Third World and non bloc nations met to demonstrate to the Eastern and Western Blocs that they were independent active and respected participants in world affairs Cavo ki shows how these summits were also closely related to events occurring in the relationship between the two blocs providing opportunities for non bloc actors to influence the global balance of power By moving the focus of 20th century international history away from the bloc nations and instead giving developing nations in Africa and Asia due attention this book provides a fresh perspective on Cold War history and fills a significant gap in the literature It is an important study for all students and scholars of the Cold War and international history
