The Ashtray Errol Morris,2023-02-17 In 1972 philosopher of science Thomas Kuhn threw an ashtray at Errol Morris This book is the result At the time Morris was a graduate student Now we know him as one of the most celebrated and restlessly probing filmmakers of our time the creator of such classics of documentary investigation as The Thin Blue Line and The Fog of War Kuhn meanwhile was and posthumously remains a star in his field the author of The Structure of Scientific Revolutions a landmark book that has sold well over a million copies and introduced the concept of paradigm shifts to the larger culture And Morris thought the idea was bunk The Ashtray tells why and in doing so it makes a powerful case for Morris s way of viewing the world and the centrality to that view of a fundamental conception of the necessity of truth For me Morris writes truth is about the relationship between language and the world a correspondence idea of truth He has no patience for philosophical systems that aim for internal coherence and disdain the world itself Morris is after bigger game he wants to establish as clearly as possible what we know and can say about the world reality history our actions and interactions It's the fundamental desire that animates his filmmaking whether he's probing Robert McNamara about Vietnam or the oddball owner of a pet cemetery Truth may be slippery but that doesn't mean we have to grease its path of escape through philosophical evasions Rather Morris argues powerfully it is our duty to do everything we can to establish and support it

The Maze Maker Michael Ayrton, 2015-11-04 A book of rich texture and memorable qualities It belongs with the work of such other fine modern interpreters of myth as Mary Renault and Robert Graves The Wall Street Journal I address you across more than three thousand years you who live at the conjunction of the Fish and the Water carrier speaks Daedalus an artisan inventor and designer born into an utterly alien family of heroes who value acts of war above all else a world where his fellow Greeks seem driven only to destroy an existence he feels compelled to escape In this fictional autobiography of the father of Icarus Apollo's creature a brilliant but flawed man writer and sculptor Michael Ayrton harnesses the tales of the past to mold a myth for our times We learn of Daedalus's increasingly ambitious artifacts and inventions his fascination with Minoan culture commerce and religion and his efforts to adapt to them how he comes to design the maze of the horned Minotaur and how when he decides that he must flee yet again he builds two sets of wax wings wings that will be instruments of his descent into the underworld a place of both purgatory and rebirth A compelling mix of history fable lore and meditations on the enigma of art The Maze Maker will ensnare classicists artists and all lovers of story in its convolutions of life and legend I never understood the pattern of my life writes Daedalus so that I have blundered through it in a maze Proof of the power of classical myths to rekindle the interest and the imagination The New York Times A beautiful cruel and fascinating re-creation of the Daedalus Icarus myth Publishers Weekly
