Fictional Presidential Films Sarah Miles Bolam & Thomas J. Bolam, 2011-07-01 Fictional Presidential Films Hollywood's manner of making films its conventions applies especially to fictional presidential films allowing filmmakers to express their ideas that could not be done in traditional historical films Fictional Presidential Films offers a complete filmography of these two hundred plus films decade by decade since 1930 The main body of the work provides a brief summary of each decade along with a summary on the overall nature of films in which a fictional President appeared Each relevant film is then discussed with credits plot summary description of the presidential appearance and when possible an assessment of the presidential portrayal included Science Fiction Film Directors, 1895-1998 Dennis Fischer, 2011-12-14 This enormous and exhaustive reference book has entries on every major and minor director of science fiction films from the inception of cinema circa 1895 through 1998 For each director there is a complete filmography including television work a career summary a critical assessment and behind the scenes production information Seventy nine directors are covered in especially lengthy entries and a short history of the science fiction film genre is also included Sidney J. Furie Daniel Kremer, 2015-11-12 Known for his visual style as well as for his experimentation in virtually every genre of narrative cinema award winning director Sidney J Furie also has the distinction of having made Canada's first ever feature length fictional film in English A Dangerous Age 1957 With a body of work that includes The Ipccress File 1965 Lady Sings the Blues 1972 and The Entity 1982 he has collaborated with major stars such as Marlon Brando Frank Sinatra Robert Redford and Michael Caine and his films have inspired some of Hollywood's most celebrated directors including Stanley Kubrick and Quentin Tarantino In this first biography of the prolific filmmaker author Daniel Kremer offers a comprehensive look at the director's unique career Furie pioneered techniques such as improvisation in large scale film productions and sometimes shot his films in sequence to develop the characters from the ground up and improve the performers in the moment spontaneity Not only has Stanley Kubrick acknowledged that Furie's The Boys in Company C 1978 informed and influenced Full Metal Jacket 1987 but Martin Scorsese has said that he considers The Entity to be one of the scariest horror films of all time However Furie was often later criticized for accepting lowbrow work and as a result little serious study has been devoted to the director Meticulously researched and enhanced by Kremer's close relationship with the filmmaker this definitive biography captures the highs and lows of an exceptional but underexamined career taking readers behind the scenes with a director who was often ahead of his time The History of American Literature on Film Thomas Leitch, 2019-06-13 From William Dickson's Rip Van Winkle films 1896 to Baz Luhrmann's big budget production of The Great Gatsby 2013 and beyond cinematic adaptations of American literature participate in a rich and fascinating history Unlike previous studies of American literature and film which emphasize particular authors like Edith Wharton and Nathaniel Hawthorne particular texts like Moby Dick particular literary periods like the American Renaissance or particular genres like the novel this volume considers the multiple functions of filmed American literature as a cinematic genre in its own right one that reflects the specific political and aesthetic priorities of different national and historical cinemas even as it plays a decisive role in defining American literature for a global audience      The Ascendancy of Harley Quinn Shelley E.
