Supernatural Love:

Nature & Grace Matthias Joseph Scheeben, 2024-10-01 For Scheeben our status as creatures means that not only all our actions but even our very existence from moment to moment depend on God who as our loving Creator grasps us at the root of our being This is radical dependence also means that we have certain duties toward God Ultimately the only proper posture we can adopt toward him is to bow our heads in profound humility before the one who has granted us participation in being from his infinite generosity On a very practical level this dependence means that our true exaltation can only come about through humble submission in love to him who made us We do this through the handing over of our being to him in sacrifice made possible by the sacrificial self offering of Christ just as true Aufkl rung enlightenment can only come about by the sacrificium intellectus the handing over of our intellect to the one who gives it back to us divinized by the light of faith Everything is ultimately grace in that creation itself is absolutely gratuitous a pure gift But in God s providence we stand in relation to God in distinct ways on account of his stupendous generosity and love While everything is indeed grace there is a double gratuity that marks the Christian life the grace of creation and that of divine sonship The whole point of distinguishing nature and grace lies precisely in preserving the supernatural splendor of this twofold gratuity that is in distinguishing the grace of the natural order from the grace of our supernatural participation in divine life If we don t have a robust sense of the natural order we won t see how transcendent the supernatural order truly is The Way of Prayer

Transfiguring medievalism Cary Howie,2020-12-15 Transfiguring medievalism combines medieval literature modern poetry and theology to explore how bodies including literary bodies can become apparent to the attentive eye as more than they first appear Transfiguration traditionally understood as the revelation of divinity in community becomes a figure for those splendors mundane and divine that await within the read lived and loved world Bringing together medieval sources with modern lyric medievalism the book argues for the porousness of time and flesh not only through the accustomed cadences of scholarly argumentation but also through its own moments of poetic reflection In this way Augustine Cassian Bernard of Clairvaux Dante Boccaccio and the heroes of Old French narrative no more or less than their modern lyric counterparts come to light in new and newly complicated ways

The Church as Counterculture Michael L. Budde,Robert W. Brimlow,2012-02-01 The question What does it mean to be the church has always been among the most controversial and of vital concern to political economic and ecclesial leaders alike How it is answered influences whether Christianity will be a force for legitimating or subverting existing secular relations of power influence and privilege The Church as Counterculture enters the debates on Christian identity purpose and organization by calling for the churches to reclaim their roles as communities of disciples distinct and distinctive groups formed by the priorities and practices of Jesus to constitute a countercultural reality and challenge to secular society and existing power relations The notion of the church as a countercultural community of disciples confounds many conventional divides within the Christian family liberal and conservative church and sect while forcing redefinition of commonplace categories like religion and politics sacred and secular The contributors to this book theologians social theorists philosophers historians Catholics and Protestants of various backgrounds reflect this shifting of categories and divisions The book provides thought provoking Christian perspectives on war and genocide racism and nationalism the legitimacy of liberalism and capitalism and more Contributors include Michael J Baxter Robert W Brimlow Walter Brueggemann Michael L Budde Curt Cadorette Rodney Clapp Roberto S Goizueta Stanley Hauerwas Marianne Sawicki and Michael Warren to effective socially oriented Christian living in tune with the needs and demands of our times He takes for his theme the basic traditional truth grace builds upon rather than destroys human nature and develops this theme with extraordinary understanding and eloquence The first chapter Becoming Human sets the tone of the book For Father McNamara the sanctifying process is the humanizing process and the way by which one can cultivate the art of being human within oneself He then probes into the very roots of the conditioning processes which daily shape our lives and poses for the reader some incisive questions which demand reflection and inner search Discussions on faith hope love religion mental prayer and spiritual growth follow The final chapters on leisure and leadership are especially provocative since they direct the reader's attention to where the responsibility for the self accomplishment of this art truly lies Father McNamara has the knack of putting his finger directly on the problems of today's living THE ART OF BEING HUMAN does not pretend to have all the answers but it goes a long way toward taking the reader in the right direction Here is a book to read to ponder and to act as its message challenges us to do Magnificat Cultivating the Gifts & Fruit of the Holy Spirit Fuchsia Pickett, 2004
