Detention Reviews in Canada Raj Napal,2019-10-21 Advocate effectively for detained immigrants at the Immigration and Refugee Board of Canada Every year in Canada thousands of immigrants are detained in holding centres and jails and the numbers continue to grow year over year Immigrants can be arrested without warrant and held indefinitely without charge but all detainees are entitled to regular detention reviews If you work with immigrant detainees you need to know how to present an effective case at detention review hearings to secure their release This one stop resource presents a comprehensive overview of the detentionreview process administered by the Immigration Division a branch of the Immigration and Refugee Board IRB of Canada More than just a summary of the law that governs detention reviews this guide outlines practical steps that can help you to secure a detainee s release Through an in depth case study immigration lawyer Raj Napal examines every stage of the detention review process from drafting a suitable retainer agreement to presenting a case and questioning witnesses in front of an IRB tribunal Drawing on more than 20 years of experience advocating for immigrants at the IRB Raj covers everything you need to know to prepare for a detention review and maximize your chance of securing your client s release Anyone working in immigration law including lawyers paralegals and immigration consultants needs this book This practical handbook covers Essential grounds for detention the legislation the case law and the procedural protocol of the Immigration Division Tactics to present your case effectively before the board Creating effective release plans for detainees Dealing with detained children Recent developments and precedents that affect detention reviews including the 2017 Laird Report and the 2019 amended Chairperson s Guideline on Detention

Supervision in Canada Today, Second Edition, Stephen P. Robbins, David A. De Cenzo Test Item File Condie, Joan,Lloyd, Thomas W,1999 Supervision in Canada Today Stephen P. Robbins,1998 The Canadian Criminal Justice System Nick Larsen,1995 The administration of justice is an area of social policy that defies attempts to achieve a balance between order and the protection of the public and respect for individual rights The media contain daily accounts of the failure of the criminal justice system to repress crime It is within this social and legal context that this work is situated In addition to including a range of articles in the standard areas of policing courts and corrections recent articles deal with such controversial issues as aboriginal justice the recruitment of visible minorities by Canadian police forces and the role of women in the Canadian criminal justice system The collection concludes with a critical assessment of the retributive model that currently serves as the philosophical underpinnings of the Canadian criminal justice system Supervision in Canada Today Stephen P. Robbins, Encyclopedia of Business in Today's World Charles Wankel, 2009-06-12 Serving as a general nontechnical resource for students and academics these volumes provide an understanding of the development of business as practiced around the world The Administration of Health Insurance in Canada Malcolm Gordon Taylor, 1956 Pulp and Paper Magazine of Canada , 1929 Supervision in Canada Today, Second Edition, Stephen P.
