Child Welfare Services, 1964 Principals Improving Instruction Michael DiPaola, Wayne K.

Hoy, 2013-05-01 This work integrates the core instructional leadership tasks of all principals supervision evaluation and professional development The text demonstrates a hands on approach grounded in sound theory and rigorous research It provides both a conceptual frame and realistic exercises that today s principals and supervisors can use to improve their practice The book highlights observation tools that focus on high yield instructional strategies Principals and supervisors are encouraged to collect data in classrooms and provide this instructional feedback so together with teachers they can reflect and identify areas for growth The models of supervision evaluation and professional development are research based and are consistent with contemporary challenges that confront principals and others committed to improving instruction

Supervisory Leadership Don M. Beach, Judy Reinhartz, 2000 Supervisory Leadership emphasizes leadership practices and covers the concepts principles and skills needed to be a successful supervisor This new well researched and comprehensive text describes the supervisor s work with teachers as moving from a deficit model helping to a collegial cooperative mentoring approach It also provides helpful connections that describe and support the role of supervisors in school culture The authors provide a view of contemporary supervisory practice with particular attention given to the importance of past practices the workplace and culture leadership qualities communication models and supervision processes and the process of change and decision making Written in a language that is easily understood Supervisory Leadership provides an interactive realistic and meaningful learning experience that offers continuous opportunities for students to reflect upon their own supervisory leadership development Improving Instruction Through Supervision, Evaluation, and Professional Development Michael DiPaola, Charles A. Wagner, 2018-02-01 In this second edition of Improving Instruction Through Supervision Evaluation and Professional Development we ve maintained the conceptual framework while updating sections to provide the most recent research on instructional strategies that have the most promise of helping all students learn Modifications of the law resulting from the reauthorization of the 50 year old Elementary and Secondary Education Act Every Student Succeeds Act ESSA 2015 and their implication for practice are embedded throughout this new edition Updated data collection tools for classroom observations are also provided We included a link to a website that contains all the observation tools in electronic format so that observers can have the opportunity to collect data on a tablet or laptop save the observation data as a PDF file and e mail those data to the teacher observed This new edition recognizes the reality that all principals are responsible for supervision evaluation and professional development of their teachers tasks that are neither simple nor without conflict The primary audience of this text is aspiring and practicing principals We hope to help them understand both the theory and practice of supervision evaluation and professional development However observing instruction collecting data for reflection and having conversations about teaching are not the sole provinces of principals Master teachers teacher leaders and teacher colleagues can also benefit from the supervisory sections of the book especially the chapters on high quality instruction improving instruction and the classroom data collecting tools The book provides numerous tools specifically designed to collect a variety of data in classrooms to improve instruction Embedded in each chapter are exercises to apply Theory into Practice by responding to a set of questions posed by the key issues of the chapter After the explication and illustration of the key concepts and principles of the chapter actual Instructional Leadership Challenges as described by a successful practicing principal for reflection and analysis
