noted at thematic and formal levels they remain largely unremarked at the most visceral level of reading Indebted to while problematizing the Kristevan concept of le miteux Scott Shinabargar's The Revolting Body of Poetry reveals how the very matter of key works forces us to enact these transgressions when articulating textures of offensive lexica and imagery While certain phonemes provide access to previously untapped forces first apparent in Baudelaire and Lautréamont compulsive repetitions produce expressive inflation diffusing any initial impact Caire and Char however demonstrate an acquired control of these forces intensity contained Shinabargar concludes with a survey of contemporary poets inviting readers to consider the legacy of revolting poetics

Pell, 2014-07-24 They say that laughter is a purely human phenomenon so exclusively ours that we brook no intruders except of course for the laughing hyena the laughing jackass officially known as the kookaburra bird of Australia laughing matters laughing gas or the perennial laughing stock But what is humor that funny thing so varied in its colors and tones so encompassing in its themes so different from time to time and place to place And when we poke fun at whom are we really laughing At Whom Are We Laughing Humor in Romance Language Literatures is the selective product of a multi national gathering of scholars sponsored by Hofstra University in Hempstead New York to explore humor across the centuries in the literatures of Italy France Romania the Iberian Peninsula and its diaspora The volume contains thirty one scholarly and interpretative papers on diverse aspects of their wit provocative aspects that are for the most part little known to the general reader Precisely because of its scope and diversity its appeal should extend beyond academia into the libraries of the intellectually curious be they English speakers or not be they specialists in humanities psychology society and culture or merely interested amateurs who frequent the many new humor societies and clubs that abound in the world of today

Le Cas Lautréamont, 1925 The Making of an Avant-Garde Niilo Kauppi, 2013-08-26 No detailed description available for The Making of an Avant Garde      Blanchot Romantique Hannes Opelz, 2011 The work of French writer and essayist Maurice Blanchot 1907-2003 is without doubt among the most challenging the twentieth century has to offer Contemporary debate in literature philosophy and politics has yet to fully acknowledge its discreet but enduring impact Arising from a conference that took place in Oxford in 2009 this book sets itself a simple if daunting task that of measuring the impact and responding to the challenge of Blanchot's work by addressing its engagement with the Romantic legacy in particular but not only that of the Jena Romantics Drawing upon a wide range of philosophers and poets associated directly or indirectly with German Romanticism Kant Fichte Goethe Jean Paul Novalis the Schlegels Hegel the authors of this volume explore how Blanchot's fictional critical and fragmentary texts rewrite and rethink the Romantic demand in relation to questions of criticism and reflexivity irony and subjectivity narrative and genre the sublime and the neutre the Work and the fragment quotation and translation Reading Blanchot with or against key twentieth century thinkers Benjamin Foucault de Man they also examine Romantic and post Romantic notions of history imagination literary theory melancholy affect love revolution community and other central themes that Blanchot's writings deploy across the century from Jean Paul Sartre to Jean Luc Nancy This book contains contributions in both English and French      Lautréamont Impersonator Klaus Winkelmann, 1974      Lautréamont and Sade Maurice Blanchot, 2004 In this book Blanchot forcefully distinguishes his critical project from the major intellectual currents of his day surrealism and existentialism      Le personnage de Maldoror dans "Chants de Maldoror" de Lautréamont Georges Khoriaty, 1980-01-01 T00:00:00+01:00 Cet ouvrage est une réédition numérique d'un livre paru au XXe siècle désormais indisponible dans son format d'origine      Lautréamont Michel Nathan, 1992      Reviews, Zeitschriften, Revues Sophie Levie, 1994 This study of six early twentieth century periodicals serves to refine the traditional image of the inter war journal as the pre eminent vehicle of artistic and intellectual renewal Every periodical has its own history but general themes are clearly identified Traces emerge of a common commitment to the internationalisation of the arts and we find early and unexpected discussion of Freud Chaplin and Joyce in Brussels and Berlin jazz in Vienna and Brussels Ezra Pound in the Netherlands and Belgium In contrast to this internationalisation are the ambitions of the various editors to play a significant role in their national cultures This tension between national and international influences was in the first instance stimulating and innovative Later as a result of political and socio economic developments the newly achieved openness and exchange were gradually diminished and finally disappeared as did the periodicals themselves      Lautréamont et les chants magnétiques Louis Janover, 2002 Essai sur Lautréamont et Nerval précurseurs des avant gardes contemporaines et notamment du surréalisme Etude aussi sur les aspects de leur compréhension par les modernes qui se méprennent souvent sur leur compte      Pedagogical Possibilities of Literature Phillip Michael Semrau, 1992      The Stelliferous Fold Rodolphe Gasché, 2011 This book seeks to develop a novel approach to literature beyond the conventional divide between realism formalism and history aestheticism It accomplishes this not only through a radical reassessment of the specificity of literature in distinction from one of its others namely philosophy but above all by taking critical issue with the venerable concept of the text and its association with the artisanal techniques of weaving and interlacing This conception of the text as an artisanal fabric is the author holds the unreflected presupposition of both realist or historicist and reflective or deconstructive criticism Gasch argues that the scenes of production within literary works created by their authors yet independent of those authors intentions stage a work s own production in virtual fashion and thus accomplish for those works a certain ideal ontological status that allows for both historical endurance and creative interpretation In Gasch s construction of these scenes in which literary works render visible within their own fabric the invisible conditions of their autonomous existence certain images prevail the fold the star the veil By showing that these literary images are not simply the opposites of concepts he not only puts into question the common opposition between literature and philosophy but shows that literary works perform a way of argumentation that in spite of all its difference from philosophical conceptuality is on a par with it The argument progresses through close readings of literary works by Lautr amont Nerval de l Isle Adam Huysman Flaubert Artaud Blanchot Defoe and Melville
