The Gift Of The Deer:

GIFT OF DEER Helen Hoover, 2013-08-28 In the farthest wilds of northeastern Minnesota back in the Gunflint Range the author of this book and her artist husband have a two room cabin home in the bush country Beginning one Christmas Day when they first watched the starving deer they later named Peter the Hoovers had many opportunities a passionate inclination and the nature skills to observe this whitetail buck joined later by his mate and finally by several of their offspring through the changing seasons of four years Close as their relationship was to the generations of beautiful animals the Hoovers did not consider them pets but fellow inhabitants of that wild country Their observations reveal the rewards of living close to wild creatures but more than that they add valuable information to our knowledge of the cycle of life of the deer and other creatures native to the same world For although the deer are the chief characters of this book they are by no means the only wild creatures Mrs Hoover writes of Her naturalist s eye is just as sharp and her affection just as great for the antics of a curious chickadee or a flying squirrel Mrs Hoover s identification with nature knows no favoritism The Hoovers world the bush country of the United States Canadian border is farther removed from civilization than Mr Emerson s woodlot but the close relationship of The Gift of the Deer to Walden is evident for all to enjoy Adrian Hoover s drawings are from life and they add another level of understanding to his wife s vivid prose The Gift of the Deer Helen Hoover, 1966 Story of a family of white tailed deer describing their habits behavior personalities and position in the forest s ecology The Gift of the Deer Helen Hoover, 1959 Her Place in the Woods David Hakensen, 2025-09-10 The biography of one of Minnesota s most beloved nature writers from her career in the city to her rustic cabin on Gunflint Lake During the late 1950s through the early 1970s Helen Hoover s stories and essays of life in the wilderness on northern Minnesota s Gunflint Lake published in popular magazines and several bestselling books including The Gift of the Deer in 1966 and A Place in the Woods in 1969 found millions of fans and earned her accolades alongside nature writers like Sigurd Olson Rachel Carson Sally Carrighar and Calvin Rutstrum Hoover s own unlikely history of leaving a corporate career in Chicago for a small cabin without electricity or running water with no interest in hunting or fishing is just one chapter of the remarkable life that David Hakensen describes in Her Place in the Woods This first complete biography illuminates how Helen Hoover 1910-1984 made a place for herself and for countless readers in as she put it the world of her time Hoover defied convention Self trained and without an academic degree she worked in the male dominated metallurgical field as a researcher at International Harvester where she solved a long standing problem with the manufacture of discs for farm implements and earned a patent She and her husband Adrian a commercial artist had long dreamed of moving to a remote cabin in the woods As they started the long return drive to Chicago after a summer spent on Gunflint Lake they finally made the leap quitting their jobs with a long distance phone call from Grand Marais and figuring out the rest as they went The Hoovers were woefully unprepared for life off the grid and slowly learned how to convert sheds into chicken coops and fend off bears Social encounters presented their own challenges with Helen's fiery personality leading to clashes with hunters and other Gunflint neighbors. Gradually the Hoovers settled into the rhythms of their remote homestead and Helen would craft a prolific literary livelihood from her keen observations of nature and encounters with animals in the surrounding woods. Her Place in the Woods captures both an awakening to the power and fragility of the natural world and the efforts and talents of an extraordinary woman defining herself as a writer. Though Helen Hoover would move on from the secluded North Woods as she wrote in her final book The Years of the Forest, "From this time on it would be both here and with me wherever I might be as long as I should live."

The Wonders of the Jungle, Book One Sarath Kumar Ghosh, 2019-11-21 In The Wonders of the Jungle Book One Sarath Kumar Ghosh immerses readers in the vibrant tapestry of jungle life, blending striking imagery with lyrical prose that captures the ethos of nature. The narrative intricately weaves together traditional storytelling with rich descriptions of flora and fauna, revealing the intricate relationships among the creatures of the jungle and their environment. Ghosh's work serves as both an adventure tale and a poignant exploration of ecological interdependence, set against the backdrop of early 20th-century India, a time of burgeoning awareness regarding environmental conservation. Shamanic Secrets for Spiritual Mastery Robert Shapiro, 2006 Shamanism The Age of Deer Erika Howsare, 2025-01-07 A masterful hybrid of nature writing and cultural studies that investigates our connection with deer from mythology to biology, from forests to cities, from coexistence to control and extermination, and invites readers to contemplate the paradoxes of how humans interact with and shape the natural world. Deer have been an important part of the world that humans occupy for millennia. They're one of the only large animals that can thrive in our presence. In the 21st century, our relationship is full of contradictions. We hunt and protect them; we cull them from suburbs while making them an icon of wilderness; we see them both as victims and as pests. But there is no doubt that we have a connection to deer in mythology and story, in ecosystems, biological and digital, in cities and in forests. Delving into the historical roots of these tangled attitudes and how they play out in the present, Erika Howsare observes scientists capture and collar fawns, hunters show off their trophies a museum interpreter teaching American history while tanning a deer hide an animal control officer collecting the carcasses of deer killed by sharpshooters and a woman bottle raising orphaned fawns in her backyard As she reports these stories Howsare s eye is always on the bigger picture Why do we look at deer in the ways we do and what do these animals reveal about human involvement in the natural world For readers of H is for Hawk and Fox I The Age of Deer offers a unique and intimate perspective on a very human relationship The Deerslayer, a Tale Cooper,1841 The Canada Law Journal James Patton,W. D. Ardagh,Robert Alexander Harrison,Henry O'Brien,Charles Bagot Labatt,Arthur Henry O'Brien,Charles Morse,1915 Includes section Book reviews The Canada Law Journal ,1915
